I certify, on honor, that this Master Roll exhibits the true state of Captain Chamoeey B. Sleeper's Company, of the 145th Regt. New York State Volunteers, for the period herein mentioned; that each man answers to his own proper name in person; and that the remarks set opposite the name of each officer and soldier are accurate and just.

CHAUNCEY B. SLEEPER,
Commanding the Company.

Date — Sept. 11th, 1862. Station — New Dorp, Staten Island.

Though this Company has less than the minimum organization, it is accepted in consideration of there being a greater number of men in the Reg't than required by law, and with the understanding that the Colonel of the Reg't is to transfer to the Company the requisite number of men from the other Companies to fill it up to the authorized standard.

R. JONES, Asst. Insp'r Gen'l, Musterig Officer.

Finding on further examination that this Company cannot be filled by transfers from other Companies of the Reg't, without reducing them below the standard, I have cancelled the muster-in of the Captain.

R. JONES, Asst. Insp'r Gen'l, Musterig Officer.
