This closed the Third Ward and the drafting for the day. A son of Mayor KALBRECHT, half a dozen prominent physicians, Brig-Gen. FRATT, 15 Mansion House boarders, several enrolling officers, four pairs of brothers and one dead man were drawn.

TO-DAY

The draft will be continued in this District, commencing at the Fourth Ward at 9 o'clock in the morning.

Second Congressional District, Brooklyn.

The "draft" for the above District commenced, according to official announcement, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, at the headquarters of District Marshal SAMUEL T. MADDOX, No. 28 Grand-street, Williamsburgh. The District comprises the Sixth, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Twelfth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth and Eighteenth Wards of Brooklyn (Eastern District) and the townships of Flatbush, Flatlands, Gravesend, New-Lotts and New-Utrecht, Long Island. Of these the following Sub-Districts were drawn:

First... New-Lotts, embracing East New-York.	72
Second... Sixth Ward	457
Third... Eighth Ward	133
Fourth... Ninth Ward	276
Total	1,038

Including the 50 per cent. additional draft.

The Enrolling Board consisted of District Marshal Capt. SAMUEL J. MADDOX, Commissioner CHARLES W. CHESHIRE, Surgeon GEORGE S. WOODMAN, M. D., and Recorder CHAS. B. MORTON.

The Police force on hand consisted of 100 men, under the command of COCKLAN, of the Forty-fifth Precinct, and Inspector CARPENTER presided over their arrangements throughout the day. The military force attracted particular attention as comprising Companies A and C of the noted Eighth Ohio State Volunteers, under the command of Capt. BERRFIELD and Lieut. J. W. WHEELER.

Marshal MADDOX, shortly after nine o'clock, opened the proceedings with a few well-chosen remarks, and Supervisor GILAN SCHANCK came forward upon the counting of the ballots, and declared that as a member of the Committee appointed or rather selected by the people to inspect the counting of the ballots, he had found everything as correct and fair as human ingenuity could make it, and the rest must be left to chance or an overruling Providence. The Committee thus alluded to who officiated conjointly for all the wards, consisted of the Speaker, Mr. Schanck, Samuel Schanck, Alsam Limmington, Paterson Kapelhae and Alderman Murphy, of the Sixth Ward, and Alderman Tierman and Supervisors Herman and Newman and Charles W. Chesile, of the Ninth Ward.

A blind man, FRANCIS DOTL, was placed beside the box, the ballots were tossed into the wheel, and the first turn disclosed the name of JAMES VAN STOKLER, of New-Lotts.

FIRST SUB DISTRICT.

The wheel rolled on, presenting the names as follows:

With this the draft in the First Sub-District ended but it was discovered that Mr. Louis ALTBRAND, whose house was the scene of disturbance, last Autumn, with some Massachusetts troops stationed in the vicinity, was drawn. Three cousins out of one family connection were called. The crowd of workmen inside and around the building preserved the best order and good humor.

[Owing to the press of advertisements upon our columns, we are unable this morning to give the names drawn in the Sixth, Eighth and Ninth Wards.

Draft in the Third District.
FOURTH, FIFTH AND SEVENTH WARDS COMPLETE.

The drafting in the Third Congressional District, Capt. STEPHEN B. GARCONY, Provost-Marshal, was resumed yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.

The military guard of Minnesotians was under command of Capt. HOFFELINGER, while Capt. JOHN SMITH, with the force of the Forty-first Precinct and 100 men from New-York, were on duty under direct charge of Inspector FOLE. Lieut. BARON, N. Y. Vols., Aid-de-Camp to Col. NUCENT, superintended the draft, as the official representative of Col. FAY.

At 9 o'clock Capt. GARCONY announced that the draft would be made to fill the quota of the which includes the Fourth Ward. Messrs. VAN BRUNT, TAYLOR and DEAN were appointed a Committee to count the ballots. They announced the whole number to be 1,554, of which 369 were to be drawn as the quota for the District, with the additional fifty per cent.

Mr. COONEY turned the wheel, the blind man, Mr. WINNERS, drew the ballot, and Comptroller BRUSH, in a clear and distinct voice, called out the name of Kings, Brooklyn, 4th Ward.

JOHN D. GLASS, FULTON-ST. DISTRICT CLERK.
 Mr. Glass is probably a well-known man in his District, for the announcement of his name was greeted with loud shouts and bursts of applause.

The following alphabetical list has been carefully compared with the official ballots and may be implicitly relied upon:

THE DRAFT YESTERDAY.

At the conclusion of the drawings a brief recess was taken, during which the ballots remaining in the wheel were counted by the Committee, and found to correspond with the desired tally.

Sergeant Thomas J. Dornell, several Police officers, a brother of Hon. Moses F. Odell, and the Secretary of the Mortauk Insurance Company were among the favored ones.

After the Fourth Warders had retired from the room, the Fifth Warders in full force assembled, and the atmospheric status of the room became if possible more fearfully unhealthful and disagreeable.

Capt. Gaseoxy having called the audience to order, appointed a Committee of citizens to count the ballots, who announced the total number deposited in the wheel to be 2,446, of which 551 were to be drawn as the quota of of Fifth Ward, including the 50 per cent. additional. The Hon. Moses F. Odell, Inspector Folk, Lieut. BARGOR, Commis. Secor of Police Bureau, Postmaster Lincoln and other prominent gentlemen, occupied the platform at the side of Capt. Gaseoxy.

All being ready, the Commissioner announced the name of MONTAGUE MAGUIRE, No. 69 Hudson-avenue, as the first on the roll of conscripts from the Fifth Ward. The other names were then drawn, and will be found here with alphabetically arranged.
