The Draft in Brooklyn.

No orders have yet been received by the Assistant Provost-Marshal in the Second and Third Congressional Districts. Everything is in readiness to proceed with the drawing in these districts, and the officers are under the impression that it will be commenced on Monday next.

Kings!

BROOKLYN.

The firemen of Brooklyn, in both districts, who have been drafted, number (with the exception of the men of one company, No. 11, not heard from) four hundred and forty-one men. Of these, one hundred and seventy-five were drafted in Williamsburg.

The Half Million Draft Loan is not rapidly subscribed for, though the prospects are better. $86,000 have been subscribed for up to this morn-

Incidents of the Draft in Brooklyn.

The draft was continued yesterday in the Third District. The Provost-Marshal's office in Washington-street was thronged with spectators from an early hour, and the sidewalk opposite was crowded during most of the day. The Fourth, Fifth and Seventh Wards were drawn. The Eleventh and Thirteenth will be drawn to-day, and the Fifteenth and Nineteenth on Thursday. The best of order prevailed.

Among the Police drawn were Capt. Powers, of the Forty-fourth Precinct; Sergt. Cornell, of the Forty-second; Sergt. Thomas Wright, of the Forty-ninth, and five patrolmen belonging to different districts.

Supervisor Booth, of the Fourth Ward; Col. E. L. Molineux, of the One Hundred and Fifty-ninth regiment New-York Volunteers, wounded in the battle of Indian Bend, La., and still in the service; Maj. Oliver T. Beard, late of the Forty-eighth regiment New-York Volunteers; Luther B. Wyman, Esq., one of the Directors of the Academy of Music, besides a number of prominent Ward politicians, were elected.

A woman named REINA HOCHSTADTER, residing in the Eighth Ward, was drawn as a conscript. It appears that she keeps a small store, and when the enrolling officer called for the name of her husband, she told him he could take it from the sign much better than she could tell him. Her name being on the sign instead of that of her husband, it was placed on record and she was duly enrolled and drafted.

Mr. JAMES SMITH, a barkeeper in the Franklin House, has three sons. One has served in the Excelsior Brigade since its organization, another is in the army corps of Gen. Foster, in North Carolina, and the third was drafted on Monday.

Messrs. HUSSEY & CARL, carpet dealers, have in their employ about 25 men. Of these, nine have thus far been drafted, including Mr. CARL, one of the proprietors.

The Second Connecticut Battery, of six rifled cannon, arrived in the City yesterday and encamped on a vacant lot in Myrtle-avenue, near Broadway.

THE BROOKLYN DRAFT LOAN.

The Comptroller of Brooklyn has advertised for proposals for the half million-dollar loan authorized by the Common Council, to mitigate the severity of the draft. Bids are to be received for ten days, by which time it is expected that the money will be in the treasury.

A meeting of the Common Council Committee on the subject of the draft loan was to have been held yesterday, but no quorum appearing, no business could be transacted. A meeting of the Board will be held this evening for the purpose of acting upon the recommendations of the Committee in regard to regulations for distributing the money.

The Exemption Ordinance—Action Under It.

The following correspondence has passed between the Comptroller and Col. Nugent.

CITY OF NEW-YORK, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, }
AUG. 31, 1863. }

Col. Robert Nugent, Assistant Provost-Marshal-General, New-York City:

DEAR SIR: I have the honor to inclose herein a copy of an ordinance adopted by the Board of Supervisors of this County, and approved by his Honor the Mayor, on the 28th inst., by which you will see that they are desirous to aid the Government in procuring the number of men needed to finish up the work of suppressing the rebellion.

In behalf of the County Substitute and Reiter Committee, appointed by the Board of Supervisors on the 25th inst., I desire to learn from you what period of time will be allowed to persons drafted in this City, after they have been duly inspected and found liable to serve, in which to procure acceptable substitutes or pay the sum required to procure their exemption from the draft.

It is most respectfully suggested that the time allowed for the purpose above-named be as long as may be consistent with your instructions to allow, in order that we may be enabled to obtain the men. An early reply hereto is solicited.

Very respectfully your ob'dt servant,
MATTHEW T. BRENNAN, Comptroller.
