

A Speck of Trouble.

Resistance to the Draft. — From Hon. W. J. HUMPHREY, of Java, we learn the particulars of a demonstration against himself, as Enrolling officer under the Conscription Act, by a crowd of Irishmen. On Saturday last, C. O. SHEPARD, Esq., was in Java on his way home to Arcade. He experienced difficulty in finding any one who was willing to carry him, as threats had been freely made by the foreign population against him, as Enrolling officer for China. He applied to Mr. HUMPHREY and was promptly accommodated. They reached Arcade without difficulty, but on his return Mr. H. passed by the premises of an Irish citizen, where some 60 or 70 men were assembled at a "raising." As he was recognized, the crowd gave three groans, and a dozen or so of them, fuller of whisky than the rest, raising the cry of "Kill the d—d mon of the draft!" rushed into the road, followed by the entire crowd, many of them armed with clubs and stones. Mr. HUMPHREY drove his horse into the middle of the crowd and stopped. He was unarmed and alone, and far from the house of any "Yackee." He spoke to them civilly, telling them the folly of attempting to resist a National Law—assuring them that he had done and should do nothing more or less than his duty, and that if injustice had been done any one the law would give him redress. His words were met with nothing but threats and abuse. He was told to resign his position as an officer under the Act or he would be killed. The owner of the premises insolently ordered him to drive on, but Mr. H. replied that in the highway it was his habit to go where and stop as long as he pleased. After stopping awhile longer he attempted to drive on, but discovered that during the press of the crowd a rail had been stuck through between the spokes of his buggy wheels, and that the lines were unbuckled from the horse's bits. While in this predicament a club was thrown against his horse, a very spirited animal, for the purpose of starting him without reins. At this critical juncture a member of the crowd drew out the rail from the wheels. He was immediately set upon and beaten shockingly by his infuriated companions. While this was going on, another of the crowd, not sympathizing with the murderous spirit of the leaders, buckled the reins, and the horse sprang clear of the mob. Mr. H. was followed by threats and imprecations, and a couple of wagon loads of the mobbers made a show of pursuit. Reaching home, he made ready for any emergency. He says the notices to conscripts shall be immediately served, and that he will do it, personally, without asking for a posse to help him. If any farther violence is offered him he will be prepared to meet it, and there will be something more potent than blank cartridges used. Those who know the nerve and pluck of Col. Humphrey need no assurance that the duty assigned him will be done. The work couldn't be in better hands. If to secure the mere serving of notices required by law, for which no citizen or officer is responsible, it becomes necessary to hold half-a-dozen wakes," we trust Col. H. will have the corpses ready.

In Sheldon, too, as we are informed by Capt. TOZIER, the enrolling officer, the foreign population—mostly Germans—at a meeting held on unday resolved to resist. He anticipates no serious trouble in serving the notices—but will do it this week. His undoubted pluck stamps him as the man for the place.

There is military and police force within call sufficient to take every man from the western part of this County, if need be. We have no apprehension that there will be any very serious trouble. The Draft is being "honored" all through the country, and even the unreasoning foreigners in this county can be made to understand that no town or county or State can defy the power of the General Government—the will of the whole people. The Draft in this District was fairly and properly made. It must and will be enforced, and the loud-mouthed threateners will most likely conclude to report on the required day, without waiting for the persuasive punch of bayonets from a Provost-Guard.

THE DRAFT IN THIS DISTRICT.—The draft in this district was not made last week as was expected, nor is the board yet ready to make it. A story has been circulated that the draft is being proceeded with in secret. It is a sufficient refutation to this story to state that the Enrollment Act requires publicity and previous notice. The time for the drawing has not yet been announced.

The following quota contains fifty per cent above the number actually required from each town in this county. This fifty per cent is added to make the number good for those who may prove exemptions:

WARSAW, AUGUST 5, 1863.

The Draft in this District.

The draft for this District took place at Lockport on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week;—one day being consumed with drawing each county, commencing with Niagara and ending with Wyoming. At the drawing for Niagara county, and especially for Lockport, there was a large crowd present, but entirely orderly and satisfied with the fairness with which the drawing was conducted. The ballots for a town or given district were counted out and put in a cylinder or wheel, which was then put in motion by turning a crank, and the ballots thoroughly mixed. One ballot at a time was then drawn by a man blindfolded until the quota for that town was completed, when the remaining ballots were taken out and those for another district put in and drawn in like manner until the whole number for the 29th district was drawn. These lists are now in the hands of the enrolling officers who are serving notices on those who were drafted, ordering them to appear on or before a given day named in each notice, at Lockport. Each notice is accompanied with an order for transportation from the nearest railroad station to Lockport, and on arriving there each man will be subsisted until his case is disposed of. JOHN T. SPRAGUE, (Duplicates.) Adj. General.

Those who oppose the draft now are all Democrats--Democrats to a man--and we defy any one to point to a solitary Republican who objects to, or proposes to resist, the operations of the conscription law. In Western New York--we speak of this locality because it is under our observation--the Democrats have not come up to the work of volunteering with a will, and hence in the quota of six hundred thousand, four Republicans to one Democrat.-- Under this depletion of the Republican party Seymour was elected, and the State given over to an influence adverse to the Federal Government and the war. While the Republicans would do the fighting and allow the Democrats to do the voting, everything went smooth enough; but when the prospect of a fair draft came, which must take Democrats as well as Republicans then came the spirit of opposition which resulted in riots in New York, and will elsewhere where the people are not duly prepared for the emergency.

Vice-Pres'ts.—Attica, J. H. Loomis; Bennington, E. C. Holt; Castile, Lester B. Crego; China, C. O. Shepard; Covington, D. Cameron; Eagle, G. G. Prey; Gainesville, H. W. Hardy; Gen. Falls, S. H. Allen; Orangeville, Harvey Stone; Java, Lucius Peck; Middlebury, M. Weed Perry, S. W. Tewksbury; Pike, M. A. Hull; Sheldon, Sam'l B. Humphrey; Warsaw, Samuel Benedict; Wethersfield, G. P. Morgan.

Mr. HAYWARD, from the committee on Resolutions, reported a series of patriotic and stirring resolutions, which were unanimously adopted. E. E. FARMAN, Esq., of this place, and Rev. D. C. TOMLINSON, of Portageville, were elected delegates to the State Convention, and the Exec. Committee authorized to act with the other committees in the Dist. in appointing delegates to the National Convention at Cleveland May 20th. The proceedings were harmonious, and the organization perfected will, it is believed, be the means of accomplishing great good for "Liberty and Union."

BATAVIA, April 29.

At Warsaw, Wyoming Co., a meeting has been held; a company was formed at once, and three thousand dollars subscribed for the families of the Volunteers. Two more companies will be raised immediately.

At Perry, in the same county, a company has been formed, and others are about to be in the remaining towns. The most intense excitement exists.

A company of volunteers, numbering 80 men, under command of Augustus J. Root, left here at 9:15 a. m. for their place of rendezvous at Syracuse. They belong to the 51st Regiment N. Y. S. M. Three other companies are nearly ready to leave this place.

An immense crowd gathered at the depot to witness the departure of the volunteers; among the crowd are many of the relatives of the company, a number of whom were in high spirits.

Death of Zelotes C. Wiggins.

At a meeting of the Warsaw East Hill Sabbath School the following Preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, In the providence of God Zelotes C. Wiggins, formerly a member of this Sabbath School, was suddenly called away by death while serving his country as a soldier, falling wounded on the battle field at Gettysburg, Pa., July 3d, and dying of his wounds July 4th, 1863, therefore.

Resolved That as a Sabbath School we recognize the hand of our all-wise Heavenly Father who always does right, and by the sudden death of our young friend feel admonished of the uncertainty of life and the necessity of being always prepared for the coming of the "Son of Man." We also hope that we may profit by this dispensation of Providence by a timely preparation for our departure which is at hand.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the family of our departed friend, who have our sympathies not only, but our prayers that God may sanctify to them for their spiritual good this sore affliction; trusting that they may all live a life of holiness and be prepared to meet death with joy and not with grief.

WM. F. WOODWARD,
Superintendent Sabbath School.
Warsaw, July, 1863.

UNION STATE CONVENTION.

By order of Union State Committee.

The Point of It.

The Atlas gets out of its allegation that THE ADVOCATE is an Abolition journal, by saying that "a journal is known by the company it keeps." Now we must confess that we cannot exactly see the point of this remark. THE ADVOCATE supports the National Administration in its general policy, and in its measures for suppressing the Rebellion, and restoring the country to the operation of the "Constitution and the laws." And it denies that in so doing it proves itself to be an Abolition journal. Please make the subject sufficiently plain that men of ordinary understanding can see the point of it.—Batavia Advocate.

Perhaps there may be several 'points that men of ordinary understanding can see,' when their attention is called to them. Let us squint at a few.

1. The 'Advocate' went in for 'fusion' with the Abolitionists some years ago to support 'Fremont and Jessie,' and, though it occasionally objects very meekly to some of their most fanatical notions, it has not parted company with them since.

2. It kept company with them during Seward's irrepressible conflict.

3. When Greeley threw Seward overboard it kept company with him and the Abolitionists during the campaign for Lincoln and Hamlin.

4. When 'pressure' was needed to nerve the Administration up to an Abolition war policy, the Advocate didn't stand back.

5. The 'bull against the comet' followed, and our neighbor still kept company with the fanatics attempting to enforce it.

6. A 'Loyal Union League' with the Abolitionists is started, and it is still with them!

7. And now, since the Abolitionists find 'official sanction' for declaring, "the policy of the Government is fixed and immovable; the President has issued a Proclamation under his hand and seal; Abraham Lincoln takes no backward step;"—it still sticks by them!

"Either be with the Government in prosecuting the war" for the Nigger, "or come out flat footed against it!"

Substitutes.

Some of the drafted men in this place have adopted the creditable plan of hiring substitutes instead of paying their commutation. B. HEALY and E. E. FARMAN, Esqs., have each procured a man, paying him $325. Mr. HEALY went to Lockport on Tuesday to have his man accepted and mustered in.

—Three or four more wanted here right away; inquire at the Bank.

To Conscripts.

Marshal BOWEN replies as follows to a letter of inquiry written by B. N. PIERCE, Esq.:

"The Board of Enrollment very much prefer that Drafted men should report according to the General Order No. 3, dated August 3d., and do not hold themselves bound to examine or hear their cases until such day as the men of different towns are ordered to report. After examination a reasonable time will be given to procure substitutes or pay commutation."

All Quiet.

The demonstration against the Draft officers in the west part of this County resulted in nothing worse than recorded last week. The notices were served without opposition, when it became known that the officers were prepared to do it forcibly if they must. Some half-dozen in Java have fled the county. The law makes them deserters. The Government, not the town, stands their loss. From present appearances the draft will furnish very few men from this county. The long time given to report will give many who would otherwise have been cramped to raise their $300 an opportunity to raise the "needful."
