IN ASSEMBLY, FEB. 2, 1858.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL.

STATE OF NEW-YORK, }
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Albany Feb. 2, 1858. }

To the Assembly:

I herewith transmit the report of the Adjutant General for the year 1857.

JOHN A. KING.

REPORT.

GENERAL HEAD-QUARTERS, STATE OF NEW-YORK, }
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, ALBANY, Jan. 1, 1858. }

To his Excellency JOHN A. KING,

Commander-in-Chief of the military force of the State:

Sir : In pursuance of the law of Congress " establishing a uniform militia throughout the United States," I have the honor to submit the following report.

Upon assuming the duties of this office, I did not find upon the records of the department all the information that appeared to me to be requisite to a practical knowledge of the actual situation of the military force of the State, in respect to its numbers, equipment or discipline. As this knowledge was indispensable to a proper discharge of the duties of the office, I endeavored to obtain the same by issuing, under your sanction, a general order, of which a copy may be found in the appendix, marked (A), directing the commandants of regiments to return, upon the blanks accompanying the order, a description of their regimental territories, the names of the officers of the field and staff, the number of their companies, and, under their proper letters, the names of the officers, the number of men in each, the character of the arm, and the ordnance, arms and military stores in their possession. It was, of course, not to be anticipated that so much information, required from a force not constantly on duty, nor habituated to the daily routine of the soldier, should be promptly transmitted to the department. However, it is gratifying to state that, except in a few instances, the delay in the returns was far less than was feared, while the number of regimental commandants who made returns quite surpassed all expectations. Out of seventy-one regiments, there are only six from which returns have not been received, viz.: the 35th, 47th, 59th, 61st, 62d, and 63d, and of these, two have been disbanded during the past year.

The information derived in pursuance of the order referred to has been made available by being incorporated in a new roster of the military force.

The plan of the one recently in use, though an improvement upon that hitherto employed, did not contain all the information desired. The new roster, however, is now complete, and is as perfect as it can be made from the returns received.

Great care has been observed before entering upon it any name returned in the regimental blanks, to ascertain if such name were already upon the old roster, and if not there, then to search for it among the usual returns of the brigadiers, and if not found, it has not been entered.

It will be found that there are many instances where names have been unavoidably omitted, through a neglect of the respective colonels or brigadiers in making the proper return for the commission. Happily, however, from the plan of the roster, these omissions are susceptible of correction, where the attention of the department is called to the error by a return of the proper general.

From this official roster has been digested the one hereto annexed, which is believed to be sufficiently full and exact to meet the demands of the service. It will be observed, however, that the residences of the company officers have not been given, it having been found impossible to include them within the limits of the page.

The enumeration of the strength of each company and the total of the regiment, as contained in the roster, are taken from these regimental returns transmitted to the department during the past summer, and furnish, perhaps, a fair estimate of the strength of the force; yet, in special instances, from some unprecedented increase, as will be noted with regard to the 7th Regiment, they may not show exactly the present regimental strength.

It will be seen from the table in the roster containing a recapitulation of the force, that the military force of the State is divided into eight divisions, twenty-eight brigades and sixty-seven regiments, comprising in the aggregate 16,434 officers and men, and is classified in the various arms as follows :

Of the infantry arm there are 241 companies and 8,779 officers and men.

Of the artillery arm there are 79 companies and 3,188 officers and men.

Of the cavalry arm there are 41 companies and 1,712 officers and men.

Of the rifle arm there are 41 companies and 1,835 officers and men.

There are of general officers 36.

Of the field officers of regiments, 190.

And of the staff and non-commissioned staff, 694.

By a comparison of this aggregate with that set forth last year in the report from this department, it will be seen that there is a somewhat large diminution, which need, however, suggest no fears for the existence of the force. In fact, though several regiments have been disbanded by consolidation with others, the number of the rank and file to day cannot be less than it was last year at this time. On the contrary if there be any difference it is one indicating an increase of the force.

The total as now stated is based upon sufficiently reliable data while that published last year was, I am informed, the result of a calculation necessarily uncertain, and, as it now seems, quite at variance with the fact.

From these special regimental returns has likewise been digested a table of ordnance, arms and other military stores belonging to the State and in the possession of the troops, which will be found in the appendix marked (B.)

By this table it appears that there are in the hands of the troops, of ordnance, arms and accoutrements, as follows :

|--|----|
| Of cannon of the calibre of nine pounds, | 4 |
| do six pounds, | 98 |

|--|--------|
| Of howitzers of the calibre of twenty-four pounders, . . . | 15 |
| do twelve pounders, | 2 |
| Of mountain howitzers, | 4 |
| Of muskets, | 12,031 |
| Of rifles, | 2,130 |
| Of musketoons, | 1,042 |
| Of pistols, | 3,163 |
| Of sabres and swords, | 4,288 |

The artillery is returned to be in an excellent condition, while the muskets are for the most part reported as utterly worthless.

Indeed, these special returns have been so constantly a matter of reference in the daily discharge of the duties of the office that I am at a loss to understand how the department could have been satisfactorily managed without the information which they contain.

The subject which next claimed the attention of the department, after putting in train the means by which the necessary departmental information was to be obtained, was one having reference to the military commutation. Complaints of the utter and even wilful negligence of the assessors in making out the enrolments of those liable to military duty in their respective towns or wards, and of the carelessness of the civil officers in enforcing the collection of the commutation where it had been assessed, having reached the department, the idea was entertained that, perhaps, if the various supervisors, assessors and collectors throughout the State were properly apprised of their duties in this regard, and of the penalties attaching for their neglect, the cause of these complaints would in a great measure cease and the commutation fund be necessarily augmented.

With this view, instructions in pursuance of section 9, of art. I, of title III, of the Militia Law, were prepared and printed in pamphlet form, a copy of which is hereto annexed marked C., and several thousands of them accompanied by a general order to regimental commandants (also annexed) were transmitted to each of such commandants for distribution to the various civil officers concerned in the collection of the commutation fund of their respective districts.

In addition to the above, there have been drawn from the government, and charged against the quota of the year 1858, the following additional stores, namely: 40 long range rifles, with sword bayonets; 100 sets long range rifle accoutrements, equivalent to $53\frac{1}{3}$ muskets.

With regard to the quota for the year 1858, it is perhaps proper to say in this connection, that since the long range rifled musket has so completely supplanted the musket proper in the hands of the United States troops, this department has once more warmly urged upon the general government the propriety of supplying for the future the original percussion arm, which, under the recommendation of the colonel of ordnance, Colonel H. K. Craig, it has finally consented to do, and even farther, to adapt this weapon, by back-sighting and rifling, to the use of the Minie cartridge.

The State has stored in its various arsenals and in the hands of its troops a large number of exceedingly worthless weapons, a considerable proportion of which have apparently come down from the war of 1812. It was deemed advisable to collect these and from time to time to sell them, together with the damaged ammunition on hand, and out of the proceeds of such sales to improve the best of the remaining arms, or to purchase, under your direction, others of a more recent construction. The Commissary General therefore received during the early part of the year the proper instructions from your Excellency, and will doubtless report to you his action in the premises.

While the bulk of the small arms belonging to the State are thus worthless, it nevertheless owns a very considerable quantity of serviceable muskets of quite recent patterns, altered from flint to percussion, and also a large quantity which have been rendered unserviceable simply by the careless manner in which they have been altered. It was suggested by Capt. J. N. Ward, an ingenious officer of the United States army, that, by applying a cone seat to the side of the barrel, and removing the cone from the top of the barrel and tapping it into the cone seat—by adapting the weapon to the use of the Minie cartridge, and by attaching his magazine hammer to the lock, and a clasp to the bayonet, these muskets might be rendered, at an expense of $4 each, as serviceable as the most improved arm of recent invention. This magazine hammer is a method of applying the priming tape to the cone in a manner different from that suggested by Maynard, the inventor of the process. In Maynard's arrangement, the coil chamber is in the body of the lock, directly below the cone; the priming paper is urged forward by dogs, which, pressing against a straight length of paper, are themselves moved by a connection with the hammer. It is said that there are se rious objections to this method, in the fact that the coil chamber being in the body of the lock, it is impossible to prevent the oil of the lock from reaching the paper, and destroying its explosive quality; and also, that inasmuch as the chamber being so directly beneath the cone, the discharge of one globule of the fulminating powder might explode the balance of the coil in the chamber. With regard to the first of these objections, there can be no doubt that if there be a redundancy of oil in the lock, some of it will reach the chamber. It may be said, however, that a weapon having the Maynard method of priming, and which has been for months in the Adjutant General's office without a change of coil, has never been known to fail on trial, nor has the coil ever been exploded while in its chamber.

In Captain Ward's method the coil chamber is in the upper part of the hammer, the paper passes over a ratchet wheel, and is fed upon the cone by the movement of this wheel as it is turned in the act of cocking, by means of a rod within the hammer being connected with a pin fixed to the body of the lock, and playing into the ratchet of the wheel.

Whatever may be the advantages or disadvantages of these two methods of priming, it was quite apparent that for the improvement of our State muskets, the Ward method could be strongly recommended upon the score of economy, as it required only another description of hammer to be attached to the lock, while by the Maynard plan the substitution of an entirely new lock was necessary. Your Excellency having consented to an alteration of our best muskets on the Ward principle, a contract has been entered into with Captain Ward for the alteration, in accordance with the sample deposited in this office, of such quantity of muskets as shall from time to time be turned over to him, at the rate of $4 per musket—one half of this sum to be in money, and the remainder, at the option of the State, either in money or in old unserviceable arms, at the market rates of such weapons. Twelve hundred muskets are now in his hands, undergoing the process of alteration. As soon as completed, they will be divided among some of the regiments in the city of New-York, for thorough trial.

Of the sum of thirteen thousand dollars received from the general government in settlement of advances for military stores, and appropriated by the Legislature for the purchase, under your Excellency's direction, of arms and ammunition, there has been expended

| For 27 brass drums, (snare,) | } | $2,592 50 |
| 137 maple drums, (snare,) | | |
| 51 bass drums, | | |
| 2 bugles, | | |
| 20 regimental colors, | | |
| 30 guide colors, | | |
| 90 improved conical tents, (Sibley's Patent), | | 3,600 00 |
| Extra ammunition, | | 2,880 88 |
| | | $9,073 38 |
| Making a total of | | $9,073 38 |
| And leaving a balance unexpended of | | $3,926 62 |

With the view of procuring snare drums of the most serviceable character, it was thought advisable to order such as might be needed, to be made with brass shells, after the style of the French army drum. Of this description twenty seven were made; but on discovering that they sustained so poor a comparison with the French drum in solidity and resonance, their further manufacture was discontinued, and maple shell drums ordered in their stead. It is eminently desirable on the ground of military convenience, order and system, that the troops in some of the larger cities of the State be provided at the expense of the State, with two snare drums and one trumpet, for alternation per company, to be kept like other State property when not in use habitually, in the company armory, and under the supervision of its commanding officer. Also, that in each of such companies, three boys be enlisted, with all the rights, privileges and duties of its regular members, to be instructed in the use of these instruments; who, in addition to accompanying their respective companies to and from the regimental parade, where they are assembled as the field music of the regiment, will also be required to mark the step at all the company drills, and, generally, be expected to take as much interest in the company as any of its members. It may be urged that this system cannot be instituted without a considerable additional tax upon the company funds; but it is difficult to believe, that in the large cities there cannot be found a sufficient number of respectable and patriotic boys, who, for no other consideration than that of an intimate and pleasurable association with the command, would feel a just pride in marching as drummers at the heads of regiments which had secured for themselves an extended and honorable reputation.

The band of a regiment partakes of the nature of an excrescence, while the field music is essentially a part of its very existence. It is indeed indispensable to the proper manœuvre of a regiment that the field musicians be thoroughly instructed, not only in the various military signals and calls, and in the proper beats and sounds which mark the pace, but also as to their various positions in parades of ceremony, in columns of manœuvre, and en route. With the view of effecting the changes here contemplated, a French army snare drum, together with the sticks, sling and apron, also, a trumpet and the French military music, which does not comprise airs or tunes, but simply beats and sounds to mark the pace, have been ordered from France to serve as models for their supply by artisans of our own land, and it is hoped that soon, in the city of New-York, will be seen a properly equipped and instructed corps of field musicians.

It has been the effort of the department, as far as it was possible, to encourage and sustain a proper soldierly spirit and pride throughout the military organization of the State. To this end the ordinary blanks in use among the troops have been examined, and where it seemed desirable, have been either simplified or entirely re-arranged, and large numbers of them have, from time to time, been transmitted to the brigadiers for distribution in their various commands. A limited supply of Scott's Tactics, and Cavalry Tactics, has also been procured, and, together with a much larger number of Cooper's Abridged, and Hardee's Light Infantry Tactics, been similarly distributed. Some five hundred copies of the General Regulations for the army, received from the government of the United States during the year, have likewise reached the troops through the same channel.

Twenty companies have been organized during the year, as will appear from the table hereto annexed, marked D. Fourteen of them are of the infantry, two of the rifle, and four of the artillery arm.

There have been issued of commissions to officers of the staff, 185, and to officers of the line, 378; in all, 563 commissions.

The whole number of the enrolled militia, as returned to the President of the United States, is, by estimate, 350,000 men.

The following is the number of arms and equipments ordered to be issued, and the number actually issued during the past year :

In accordance with the provisions of the law, there should have been transmitted to this office inspection returns from twenty-eight brigades, whereas only sixteen have been received. Whether this omission to return is due to the negligence of the delinquent brigade inspectors, or to an oversight of the brigadiers in not ordering parades for inspection, I am at a loss to deter-mine. The files of the department fully attest that the omission is not peculiar to this year, and it seems to be more than probable, that if these officers were selected because of their known military capacity, conjoined with their zeal for the efficiency of the service, there would scarcely arise an occasion for remarks of this character.

The following are the names of the delinquent inspectors :

The consolidated returns of the brigade inspectors will be found in table E, hereto annexed.

The system known as the commuting system, were it enforced in accordance with the spirit of the law, would, it can hardly be denied, provide a sufficient fund for the partial relief of our military organization, from the burthens under which it is at present struggling. While it is not desired that the force should be wholly sustained from this system, like a mercenary one, it is nevertheless consonant with reason and justice that men volunteering to perform a duty which all, with a few exceptions, are required by the laws of Congress to discharge, should be at least assisted in some of their expenses, as for music, armory rent, and horses for guns, by those who are thereby relieved from such duty. To show how inadequately the system as at present administered meets this reasonable demand, reference is made to the returns of the various county treasurers of the State which furnish a statement of the sums received, and to the reports of the boards of auditors of the different regiments which explain the mode in which they have been disbursed. They will be found in tables F. and G., hereto annexed. In connection with this subject, it may be remarked that in many instances, were the regimental fund to be devoted exclusively to defraying the expense of music or the usual expenses of an armory, it would be found barely to suffice, while in others it would scarcely meet, by one half, these indispensable requirements.

It is, however, certain, under the best view of the case, that the system has failed of accomplishing the end for which it was instituted. From the reports which constantly reach this department from the military authorities, verified as they are by the returns of the county treasurers and of the clerks of the boards of supervisors, the conviction is irresistible that the responsibility for the failure is in no small degree due to the perversely negligent manner in which their duties under the military law are discharged by the assessors and collectors of the various towns of the State. In not a few of the towns the assessors have utterly neglected to make the enrolment, and in many instances, where the enrolment has been made, if the number enrolled be compared with the population of the town, it cannot but appear singularly defective.

It is insisted that had the assessors and collectors made more persistent efforts in the discharge of the military portion of their duties, there would not have existed against them the present almost universal complaint; yet on the other hand it may be urged that the law in the matter of exemptions, by its many and sometimes inconsistent provisions is quite as apt to mislead as it is to direct, and that though its general spirit partakes much of military stringency, still the provision authorising the deferring of the collection of the commutation to the second year, often defeats the efforts of the best intentioned collector, while another provision, in prescribing no penalty, though it authorizes a prosecution, absolutely prevents the enforcement of the law at his hands.

In correction of these defects, it is respectfully suggested, by way of amendment to the law, that the notice now required to be given to each person enrolled, that he is so enrolled, be discontinued, and that the notice which the assessors are required to affix conspicuously in at least three places of public resort in their respective towns, answer in lieu thereof, and that the assessors be further required, under a penalty of fifty cents for each name omitted, to return upon the military roll, to the board of supervisors of their respective counties, the name of every person in their town, between the ages of 18 and 45 years, who is not exempt from the performance of military duty. To enable them to discharge properly this duty, it is desirable that all the various grounds of military exemption and privilege be specified connectedly in the law, and so clearly that a misapprehension of them shall be impossible.

It is also desirable that when the assessors shall have completed their roll, they shall certify it to the board of supervisors, who shall take the same and incorporate it in the tax roll, by simply adding 50 cents to the total of tax standing against the name of every person upon such tax roll, whose name shall have been returned upon the military roll, and where there are names upon the military roll which do not appear upon the tax roll, they are to be added to the tax roll, and from each whose name is thus added, is to be collected the sum of 50 cents. The supervisors will in their warrants direct the collectors to deposit with the county treasurer, out of all moneys collected, to the credit of the regiment in whose bounds the same has been collected, the sum of — dollars, being a sum equal to 50 cents for each name returned by the assessors upon the military roll. The collectors in making their collections, will make no distinction between the commutation and the tax proper, but will proceed to collect the sums specified against the names of persons upon their tax rolls, in the manner in which they now collect taxes.

Where from any cause, such as the absence of property to be levied on, or the removal from the county, it is impossible to collect the commutation, the collectors shall certify a list of the names of those from whom it is impossible to collect the same, to the county treasurer, to be by him transmitted to the board of supervisors, who shall include the amount uncollected in the general tax to be levied upon the property of the county during the succeeding year, to supply the deficiency of the year then past.

From the operation of the provisions of the tenth title of the militia law in the cities of Albany and Buffalo, it is deemed to be advisable, and it is accordingly recommended, that these provisions be applied, with amendments, however, where experience has demonstrated their inharmonious action, generally to all the cities of the State, with the exception of those wherein the first division law is in force. The amendments that seem to be necessary to a proper operation of these provisions are such as shall relieve exempts from the continual harrassment of being warned to parade, to pay, or to excuse themselves at a court of appeals, and also those which shall provide for the collection of fines by marshals appointed under the sanction of the county treasurer, to whom they shall be required to return all the moneys collected by them for fines, excepting therefrom their fees, together with a list of the names of those from whom the same have been collected, arranged in alphabetical order, with the residences and with the amount collected, specified against the respective names, which list the treasurer is to publish on a given day, and for five consecutive days, and, in a notice to be appended thereto, specifying that the list contains the names of those from whom a fine has been collected, in a particular district, to request those who may have paid the fine, whose names do not appear in such list, to report the fact, and their residences, on or before a given day, to the county treasurer, who will thereupon make out a list of the names of persons so reporting, and transmit the same to the commandant of the regimental district, to enable him to investigate the conduct of the marshal in the premises.

With regard to the city of New-York, the recent disturbances, which would have ended doubtless in scenes of rapine and bloodshed were it not for a recollection of the summary manner in which the Astor Place riot had been suppressed, have demonstrated to the satisfaction of all that the presence of a powerful military force is indispensable to the preservation of the lives and the property of the citizens of that town.

The commuting system as applied in the city of New-York is scarcely adequate to the ordinary expenses of music for the division, and when considered in connection with the additional expenses of the force in responding so frequently to the calls of the civil authorities, it is little better than a mockery. To prepare and maintain the first division for the emergencies of the future, it is considered that a sum equal to $5 per man for each man who has served faithfully as an officer or soldier of the division during the year would, perhaps, meet the requirements of the case. I therefore do not hesitate to recommend the levy of a tax yearly upon the property of the city of New-York, equal to a sum that shall amount to $5 per man, as above set forth, to be divided by the division board of officers, after deducting the expenses of the board and of the several brigade boards, among the various regiments of the division respectively in proportion to the number of regular officers and men returned as having faithfully complied with the requirements of the law as to their services during the year, having a care, meanwhile, to prescribe such requirements of law as to parades for instruction and inspection and the returns of the same, and such other provisions as shall ensure a just distribution of the funds throughout the division.

It is recommended as necessary to the proper manœuvering and discipline of the troops of the 1st division, that the various flank companies of the division be classified into regiments of artillery, cavalry and rifles, though without a separate numerical designation, it being feared that such designation for each arm would lead in a very short time to the old confused system of skeleton regiments of artillery, cavalry and rifles, scattered all over the State, with their brigades only upon paper. The designation might, however, be as follows: "3d regiment New-York militia, cavalry." "4th regiment New-York militia, artillery." "5th regiment N. Y. M. rifles," &c.

It seems to have been the intention of the framers of the military statute in permitting two flank companies of either cavalry, artillery or rifles to be attached to the eight battalion companies of a regiment that in each regimental district of the State there should be a combination of arms at hand in case of need, though the great dependence was to be placed upon the infantry arm.

Whether such was or was not the intention, the system appears to be a good one for the State at large, and deserves to be encouraged by confining the organization, (outside of the 1st division) in the artillery, cavalry and rifle arms, to flank companies as now allowed by law.

It is, however, desirable that these flank companies should be properly disciplined in the arms of their organization, and as their instruction by the commandant of the regiment to which they are attached would be perhaps too much to demand in addition to his battalion duties, I would recommend a further amendment to the military law, whereby one competent officer for each of the three arms of artillery, cavalry and light infantry be appointed for each division excepting the first, as instructor of those arms respectively, with the rank of major, and be attached to the division staff, who should have no command but at every brigade and regimental parade in the division, should be required by law to attend, and, (under the brigadier general or colonel, as the case may be, as principal instructor,) instruct the companies corresponding with the arm they respectively represent in a thorough knowledge of the duties of that arm.

In the city of New-York, however, where, from the concentration of the force there are division parades and where the brigade parades are so frequent, there seems to be some reason for arranging the troops in the manner best adapted to the manœuvres and discipline of a large force, namely, by regiments according to their various arms.

The commission instituted by general orders No. 7, of 13th of January, 1855, for the purpose of preparing under your approval regulations for the government of the military force of the State, have, after much severe labor, at length completed their work, which is now in press and will be ready for issue, it is hoped, before the middle of February. It is due to the officers composing this commission, to state that the delay in the preparation of the work was occasioned by the announcement that the army regulations of 1847, in force at the time and which had been partially adapted by the commissioners to the government of the State force, were undergoing revision and amendment by a board of army officers at Washington, and that it was deemed prudent by these commissioners to discontinue their labors until some copies of the revised work could be procured. These were obtained in the early part of last spring, when, upon a comparison of the two works, it became apparent that the whole of the labor already performed would have to be renewed. This has been accomplished and the work completed, including a large amount of original matter.

During the recent apprehensions of bread riots in the city of New-York, the Commissary General received a notice from the president of the Metropolitan Police Commission that there was reason to fear that the State Arsenal, situated in the Central park, would be rifled of its military stores unless guarded by a proper force, and that the limited number of policemen at his disposal prevented his furnishing the proper protection. The Commissary General on transmitting to you this notice, received your instructions to make a formal demand upon the president of the police commission for a force of policemen adequate to the protection of the State property, and if it could not be obtained, then to procure a special guard himself. On being refused the policemen the Commissary General hired a sufficient number of men for the purpose, and having had them sworn as special policemen, placed them in the arsenal, where they remained guarding the building night and day for several days together. This has not been done without considerable expense, which has been met, however, by the advances of the Commissary General, who will himself give a more full and detailed report of his proceedings in the premises, and will doubtless request that, in the absence of any other method, this outlay be reimbursed by act of the Legislature, in which request I fully concur.

There have been a variety of encampments during the past year, at which the troops in many instances made fine displays, and gave evidence of being pervaded by a proper zeal for the efficiency of the service.

In this connection it is proper to state, in correction of an error which occurred in General Orders No. 40 of 1857, wherein the tactical management of the sham battle at the encampment of the 31st brigade is ascribed to Major General Randall and Brigadier General G. A. Scroggs, that the management of the battle was in the hands of General Scroggs alone.

While it is not doubted that some few advantages to the military force may grow out of encampments, it is, on the other hand, questionable if these advantages are not more than counterbalanced by the injury to the morale of the force inflicted thereby. Encampments of the regiments of our State force, as at present instructed, with the exception of some twelve or fifteen, cannot but have a disorganizing tendency, since they too frequently lead to and encourage dissipation, occasion illness from an exposure which is not of sufficient duration to enure one to hardship, though quite long enough to sow the seeds of fatal disease. While they are largely expensive to the State, they are ruinous to the resources of the troops, and are too frequently devoted to reviews rather than to severe military instruction.

Indeed, it is to be regretted that fewer encampments, and more field parades for instruction, are not ordered, and that a greater effort is not made to perfect a regiment in a knowledge of all the battalion manœuvres, and to ground its companies thoroughly in the company formations and the elementary duties of the soldier, than to attempt all the machinery of a camp without such essential knowledge.

On procuring from the government of the United States the Rome arsenal and the grounds attached, as contemplated in the "Arsenal bill" of the last session of the Legislature, I would suggest to your Excellency the propriety of ordering at that spot a camp of instruction for officers. Here might be assembled for ten days or two weeks, delegations of officers from the several brigades of the State, sufficient to make up a thousand men, to be maintained there during such time at the expense of the State, as far as the furnishing of the ordinary army rations may go, and to be thoroughly instructed, practically and theoretically, as infantry in company formations, battalion manœuvres, evolutions of the line, and in all the detail of the machinery of a camp. For this purpose some competent officer should be placed in charge of the camp, with two or more assistants, who by diagrams and in the field will instruct the assembled officers; divided anew each day into companies, battalions and a brigade, thoroughly in a complete knowledge of infantry tactics.

The great advantage to be derived from this camp by the dissemination of a practical military knowledge throughout the various brigades, is so apparent as to need, in my judgment, no argument to urge upon your Excellency its importance.

In pursuance of the provisions of this Arsenal bill, the Arsenal in the city of New-York has been sold to the city of New-York, and the proceeds of the sale deposited in the treasury of the State. Provision has been made for the speedy erection of one in its place more eligibly located, and also for the erection of other arsenals and armories in various places named in the act.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FRED. TOWNSEND,

Adjutant General.

APPENDIX C.

STATE OF NEW-YORK:

HEAD-QUARTERS, ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE. }
Albany, March 28th, 1857. }

To the supervisors, assessors and collectors of taxes in the county of ———:

An impression is generally entertained among the officers in the militia service of the State, that in those regimental districts where the amount of the military tax collected does not reach the sum reasonably to be expected in such districts, the deficiency is due more to an imperfect discharge of the duties imposed by the militia law upon the collectors of taxes, the assessors of the towns in such districts, and the supervisors of the respective counties, than from any other cause.

This department, assured that the law arms the officers of the militia service with authority sufficient to secure the enforcement of its provisions, has this day issued "General Orders" to the various commandants of brigades and regiments throughout the State, requiring their active co-operation in carrying it into effect.

In order that you may have timely warning of your duties, the following instructions are transmitted for your guidance, in accordance with § 9 of art. 1 of title 3 of the Militia Law, which reads as follows, viz :

" § 9. The assessors and supervisors, in the execution of their duties herein prescribed, shall pursue the instructions which shall from time to time be transmitted to them by the Adjutant-General."

You will have a care to follow closely every step required in the following provisions of the Militia Law :

TITLE III.

OF THE ENROLMENT OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO MILITARY DUTY, AND
THE ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION OF COMMUTATIONS.

ARTICLE I.

Of Enrolments.

§ 1. The assessors chosen in each city, village, town or ward shall annually, and at the same time they are engaged in taking the assessment or valuation of real and personal property in their respective towns or wards, include, in their assessment roll, the names of all persons in their respective assessment districts between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, liable to be enrolled by the laws of the United States; they shall prepare an additional column in said roll, which shall be headed "military roll," and in such column, opposite the name of each person not exempt, shall insert "50;" and every copy required by law to be made of said assessment roll shall contain the additions herein specified; such assessors shall give notice to every person whom they shall embrace in their military roll that he is so enrolled; such notice may be given by informing said person thereof, or by giving such information to some person of suitable age and discretion at his place of residence or business.

§ 2. As soon as the roll is completed, the assessors shall forthwith cause notices thereof to be put up in three of the most public places in the village, city, town or ward, which notices shall set forth that the assessors have made their roll of all persons liable to be enrolled according to the laws of the United States, and that the same is left with one of their number, to be designated in such notice, at some place to be specified therein, where the same may be seen and examined, by any person interested therein, until some day and place to be specified in such notice, when the said assessors will meet to review such enrolment. Such review shall be made at the same time and place the said assessors review their assessment of real and personal property.

§ 3. Any person who claims that he is not liable to military duty on account of some physical defect or bodily infirmity, or that he is exempt from the performance of military duty by any law of this State or of the United States, may, on or before the day specified in such notice, and not after, deliver to either of said assessors an affidavit stating such facts on which he claims to be exempt, or not liable to do military duty; such affidavit may be made before any person authorized to administer oaths, or before the assessors, or one of them, either of whom is hereby authorized to administer an oath for that purpose; and the assessors shall cause all such affidavits to be filed in the office of the city or town clerk; and if any person shall swear falsely in such affidavit he shall be guilty of perjury.

§ 4. The commandant of every military company and the foreman of every fire company in any city, village or town in this State, shall, before the fifteenth day of June in each year, deliver to either of the assessors in each town or ward in his company district, a list containing the names of all persons belonging to their respective companies, which list shall show the town or ward in which each member of such company resides; such list shall not contain the name of any member of such military company, however, unless he is fully uniformed.

§ 5. On the day the assessors meet to review their assessment of real and personal property, they shall also determine who are exempt or not liable to do military duty, and in a column prepared for that purpose in such roll, opposite the name of each person not exempt, shall retain "50," and opposite the name of each person not liable to do duty, shall insert "exempt," or "not liable," as the case may be; and opposite the names of all members of uniform companies on such roll shall insert "u. c.," and opposite the names of all members of fire companies on such roll shall insert "f. c.," and against the name of any military officer in commission and liable to do duty, the title of his office; and shall also insert against the names of persons between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one years, "minor;" but if such person will have arrived at the age of twenty-one years on or before the fifteenth day of November, following each enrolment, then the designation last above provided need not be made.

§ 6. Every citizen enrolled pursuant to the laws of the United States, and who shall at all times strictly comply with the act of Congress, approved May eighth, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, which in the words following requires him to "provide himself with a good musket or firelock, a sufficient bayonet and belt, two spare flints and a knapsack, a pouch, with a box therein to contain not less than twenty-four cartridges, suited to the bore of his musket or firelock, each cartridge to contain a proper quantity of powder and ball; or with a good rifle, knapsack, shot-pouch and powder-horn, twenty balls suited to the bore of his rifle, and a quarter of a pound of powder, and shall appear so armed and accoutered and provided when called out to exercise or into service;" and who shall appear before the said assessors at their meeting when reviewing their enrolment in each year, and exhibit to them each and all of said arms and accoutrements, and make oath in due form of law that they have, bona fide, provided and continually keep the same for the purposes specified in said act of Congress, and that they have performed at least one day's duty under the command of the proper officer, at a regular parade in such year, shall have placed opposite to his name, by the assessors, the words "armed and equipped;" and every person who shall swear falsely under such oath shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

§ 7. The said assessors shall, at the time they shall meet to review their enrolment, make a certified list of the names of all persons whom they shall determine to be exempt, or not liable to do military duty, and shall immediately file the same in the office of the clerk of the city, town or ward in which they reside, for the future examination and guidance of the assessors of said city, town or ward.

§ 8. When the said roll shall be completed as aforesaid, the assessors shall sign the same, and shall attach thereto an affidavit substantially as follows :

"The undersigned, assessors of the town of _____, in the county of _____, being severally sworn, say that they have made strict and diligent enquiry to ascertain the names of all persons required to be enrolled, as liable to military duty, by the laws of the United States, residing in said town, village or ward of _____; that the roll hereto annexed is, as near as these deponents can ascertain, a correct roll of all persons residing in said town or ward, who are liable to be enrolled." The said affidavit may be taken before any officer authorized by law to take affidavits, whose duty it shall be to take the same without fee or reward.

§ 9. The said assessors shall then deliver said roll, so embodied in the assessment roll of the town or ward, to the supervisor of the town or ward, who shall deliver the same to the board of supervisors at their next annual meeting, and it shall be called the "military roll of such town or ward." And the clerk of each board of supervisors shall inform the adjutant-general of the number of persons enrolled in each county.

§ 10. If any assessor shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties required of him by this act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars, to be recovered in the name of the people of the State of New-York; and if any assessor shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform such duties as are hereby required, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and such penalty, when paid or collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the county, and belong to the military fund of said regiment. And it shall be the duty of the district attorneys of the several counties, on the complaint of any commissioned officer of the uniformed militia within the county where such district attorney resides, to prosecute any assessor or collector who shall neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties required of him by this act. The costs of such prosecution, if not collected from the delinquent, shall be a charge upon the county.

§ 11. If any assessor shall neglect, or from any cause omit to perform his duties, the other assessors, or either of them, of the city, village, town or ward, shall perform such duties, and shall certify the name of such delinquent assessor, stating the cause of such omission, to the commandant of the regimental district in which he resides.

§ 12. All tavern keepers, keepers of boarding houses, persons having boarders in their families, and every master and mistress of any dwelling house, and head of quaker or shaker societies or communities, shall, upon the application of any assessor, give information of the names of all persons residing or lodging in such house, or belonging to such society or community, liable to be enrolled, and all other proper information concerning such persons as such assessor may demand.

§ 13. If any person of whom information is required by any assessor, in order to enable him to comply with the provisions of this act, shall refuse to give such information, or shall give false information, he shall forfeit and pay ten dollars for each item of information demanded of him by any assessor and falsely stated, and the like sum for each individual name that may be refused, concealed, or falsely stated; and every person who shall refuse to give his own name and proper information when applied to by any assessor, or shall give a false name or information, shall forfeit and pay a like sum, such penalties to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, in the name of the people of the State of New-York; and it is hereby made the duty of the assessors to report the names of all persons who may incur any penalty in this section prescribed, to the commandant of the regimental district in which they reside.

ARTICLE II.

Of the Assessment and Collection of Commutations.

§ 14. The board of supervisors of each county in this State, at their annual meeting, shall, in a column to be provided for that purpose in the corrected assessment and military roll, set opposite to the name of every person not exempt, and against which the words "armed and equipped" shall not appear, the sum of fifty cents, which sum shall be paid by such persons as commutation of the arms, accoutrements and exercise specified in the act of Congress approved May eighth, seventeen hundred and ninety-two.

§ 15. The said sum of fifty cents against every person who shall appear by the said assessment roll liable to pay the same, shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as taxes are collected in each county. And the warrants annexed by the supervisors to the assessment rolls of the several towns and wards shall direct the collectors to collect the amount from every person appearing by the said assessment roll liable to pay the same, in the same manner as taxes are collected, and to pay the same to the county treasurer. And where the name of any person, between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one years, shall appear on the said roll, liable to pay the said commutation, the said warrant shall direct the collector to collect the same of the father, master or guardian with whom such person shall reside, or out of any property such minor may have in the city, village, town or ward, and such collector shall proceed and execute such warrant.

§ 24. The assessors shall be compensated for their services in making the enrolment required by this article, at the same rate and in like manner as they are compensated for making the annual assessments of property.

§ 27. If any civil or military officer, other than assessors and collectors, charged with any duty under the provisions of this act, shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties required of him by this act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of not less than twenty-five, nor more than fifty dollars, to be recovered in the name of the people of the State of New-York; and if such officer shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform such duties as hereby required, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and it shall be the duty of the district attorney of any county within which such delinquent offender resides, upon the complaint of the commanding officer of the regiment, to prosecute the same. Any penalty incurred and paid, or collected under this section, shall be paid into the treasury of the county, and belong to the military fund of such regiment.

The assessors will remark that they are called upon to use only one book for the purpose of making both the "assessment roll" and the "military roll."

The names of the taxable persons upon the assessment roll, where such persons are liable to do military duty, are likewise to answer, as inscribed, for the names of the "military roll," that is, the assessors will only make use of one set of names for both rolls.

What is termed the "military roll" is simply a column ruled off, immediately adjoining and to the left of the one on the assessment roll headed "total tax;" such additional column should be headed "military roll."

In the column headed "military roll" the assessors will have a care to insert 50 against the name of every person inscribed on the "assessment roll" whom they may deem liable to military duty, and to inform all such persons that they are embraced in such enrolment.

Whenever the assessors shall receive affidavits of exemption, and at the time they meet to review their assessment of real and personal property and to hear grievances as to both the ordinary and the military tax, they will have especial care to interrogate all persons claiming exemption, closely, as to the character of their claims, and will exercise a sound discretion in determining who are and who are not liable to do military duty.

The following sections of the militia law are their guide therein :

TITLE I.

OF THE PERSONS SUBJECT TO MILITARY DUTY.

§ 1. All able bodied white male citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, residing in this State and not exempted by the laws of the United States, shall be subject to military duty, excepting,

1. All persons in the army or navy of the United States.
2. Ministers and preachers of the gospel.
3. Persons who have been or hereafter shall be regularly and honorably discharged from the army or navy of the United States, in consequence of the performance of military duty, in pursuance of any law of this State, and such firemen as are now exempted by law.

4. Commissioned officers who shall have served as such in the militia of this State, or in any one of the United States, for the space of four years; but no officer shall be so exempt, unless by his resignation after such term of service duly accepted, or in some other lawful manner, he shall have been honorably discharged.

5. Every non-commissioned officer, musician, and private, of every uniform company or troop raised, or hereafter to be raised, who has or shall hereafter uniform himself, according to the provisions of any law of this State, and who shall have performed service in such company or troop for the space of seven years from the time of his enrolment therein, shall be exempt from military duty, except in cases of war, insurrection or invasion.

§ 2. If any member of such company or troop, who shall have been regularly uniformed and equipped, shall, upon his removal out of the beat of such company or troop, or upon the disbandment thereof, enlist into any other uniform company or troop, and uniform and equip himself therefor, and serve in the same, whenever the whole time of his service in such companies or troops, computed together shall amount to seven years, he shall be exempt from military duty in like manner as if he had served for the whole period in the company or troop in which he was first enrolled.

When the assessors meet to review their assessment, they will observe all the requirements contained in the foregoing "section 5, of article 1, of enrolments," for it is under this section that the clerks of the boards of supervisors are enabled to report correctly to the Adjutant-General, as required by law, (the whole number of persons enrolled as liable to perform military duty, including all members of volunteer companies and all members of fire companies,) in their respective counties, in order that the Adjutant-General may return the same to the Secretary of War at Washington. It is upon his return that the quota of arms is issued to the State, such arms being issued in proportion to the number of such persons. The supervisors, in issuing their warrant for the collection of taxes, will observe and follow closely the requirements contained in the foregoing “sections 14 and 15, of article II., of the assessment and collection of commutations,” and in their warrants direct the collectors to collect the military part of the tax “in pursuance of the Militia law, passed April 17, 1854.”

The attention of the assessors, supervisors and collectors is particularly directed to the foregoing sections having reference to “penalties” for their neglect in the performance of the duties required by the Militia Law, with the assurance that they will be specially enforced.

FRED’K TOWNSEND,
Adjutant-General.

STATE OF NEW-YORK:

HEAD QUARTERS, ADJUTANT-GENERAL’S OFFICE, }
Albany, March 28, 1857. }

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 11.

The commandants of brigades and regiments, except those of the first division, are hereby required to observe closely each step taken by the supervisors, assessors and collectors in their respective districts, in discharge of the duties required of them by the militia law, with regard to the assessment and collection of the military commutation tax.

Should such civil officers require it, they will aid them by their advice and counsel in reference to their duties, and will note particularly any infraction of the provisions of the militia law, reporting the same to this Department, together with the name, place of residence and office of the party so offending, to the end that proper steps may be taken to enforce specifically the requirements of the law.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief.

FRED’K TOWNSEND,
Adjutant-General.

* The names in this roster marked with an asterisk, have been added since the tables giving the aggregate of the force were made out, and do not, therefore, form a part of that aggregate.

The omission of names of officers who may be serving in the force, is due to the absence of the name, or the inaccuracy of its entry upon the old roster. Errors will be corrected only on the return of a Brigadier General.
