CAVALRY.

FIRST REGIMENT—"LINCOLN CAVALRY."

This regiment was organized in New York city, to serve three years. The companies of which it was composed were raised, one in Michigan, one in Pennsylvania, and ten in the State of New York at large. It was mustered into the service of the United States from July 16th to August 31st, 1861. On the expiration of its term of service, the original members, except veterans, were mustered out, and the regiment, composed of veterans and recruits, retained in service until June 27, 1865, when it was mustered out, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

SECOND REGIMENT—"HARRIS LIGHT."

This regiment was organized at New York city to serve three years. The companies of which it was composed were raised in the counties of New York, Queens, Rensselaer, Washington and Orange, N. Y., two companies in Connecticut and two in Indiana. It was mustered into the service of the United States from August 9th, 1861, to October 8th, 1861. The original members were mustered out September 10th, 1864, and the veterans and recruits organized into four companies. During the months of September and October, 1864, eight new companies were raised in the counties of Onondaga and Cortland to serve one year. The regiment remained in service until June 5th, 1865, when mustered out in accordance with orders from the War Department.

THIRD REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized at New York city, to serve for three years. The companies of which it was composed were raised principally in the counties of Albany, Schoharie, Chemung, Delaware, Oneida, Onondaga, and Orleans. It was mustered into the service of the United States from July 17 to August 27, 1861. On the expiration of its term of service, the original members, except veterans, were mustered out, and the regiment, composed of veterans and recruits, retained in service. It was consolidated with the First Mounted Rifles, July 21, 1865. The consolidated force was designated the "Fourth Provisional Cavalry."

NINTH REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized at Albany, N. Y., to serve three years. The companies of which it was composed were raised in the counties of Chautauqua, Cattaraugus, Wyoming, Rensselaer, Washington, St. Lawrence and Clinton. It was mustered into the service of the United States from September 9 to November 19, 1861. On the expiration of its term of service the original members, except veterans, were mustered out. The Fourth Regiment N. Y. Cavalry was transferred to this regiment as companies B, E, and L, and the organization composed of veterans and recruits retained in service until July 17, 1865, when it was mustered out of service in accordance with orders from the War Department.

SECOND REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized in New York city to serve three years. The companies of which it was composed were raised principally in the counties of New York, Oneida and Herkimer. It was mustered into the service of the United States from August 22d, 1861, to December 12th, 1863. On the expiration of its term of service the original members were mustered out, and the regiment, composed of veterans and recruits, retained in service. It was consolidated into eight companies, and four companies of the Ninth N. Y. Artillery transferred to it June 27th, 1865. The regiment was mustered out September 29th, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

THIRD REGIMENT.

This regiment (originally Nineteenth Regiment Infantry) was raised at Auburn, N. Y., and was mustered into the service of the United States May 22, 1861, to serve two years. It was reorganized as the Third Artillery, January 31, 1862. On the expiration of its term of service the original members were mustered out, and the organization, composed of veterans and recruits, retained in service. The Twenty-fourth battery was assigned to this regiment as Company "L" March 5, 1865. The regiment was mustered out by batteries from June 22 to July 29, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

FIFTH REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized in New York city, to serve three years. The first and second battalions of this regiment were raised principally in the counties of New York and Kings, and were mustered into the service of the United States from December to March, 1862. The third battalion, "Black River Artillery," raised and organized in the counties of Jefferson and Lewis, was mustered into the service of the United States September 11th and 12th, 1862, and attached to this regiment, forming batteries "I," "K," "L" and "M." On the expiration of its term of service, the original members (except veterans) were mustered out, and the organization, composed of veterans and recruits, retained in service until July 19, 1865, when it was mustered out in accordance with orders from the War Department.

SIXTH REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized at Yonkers, N. Y., to serve for three years, originally as the One Hundred and Thirty-fifth New York Volunteer Infantry, and mustered into the service of the United States as such, September 2, 1862. It was changed to artillery in October, 1862, and two new companies added to it, which were mustered into the service from December 4 to December 19, 1862. The whole organization was raised in the counties of Westchester, Putnam and Rockland (8th Senate district). The original members were mustered out, and the remainder formed into a battalion of four companies, June 25, 1865. The remaining members of the Tenth and Thirteenth Regiments of Artillery were transferred to this battalion, June 27, 1865. The consolidated force was mustered out August 24, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

SEVENTH REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized at Albany, N. Y., originally as the 113th N. Y. Vol. Infantry, and was mustered into the service of the United States as such. It was changed to an artillery regiment December 19, 1862. Two new companies were organized and attached to this regiment, and were mustered into the service of the United States, one August 6, 1863, and the other January 19, 1864. The whole organization was raised in the county of Albany (Thirteenth Senate District). It was consolidated into a battalion of four companies June 28, 1865. The battalion was mustered out August 1, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

EIGHTH REGIMENT.

This regiment (originally the One Hundred and Twenty-ninth regiment New York volunteer infantry) was organized at Lockport, N. Y., to serve three years, and mustered into the service of the United States as such August 22, 1862. It was changed to an artillery regiment in February, 1863. Two additional companies were organized for this regiment in January, 1864. The whole organization was raised in the counties of Niagara, Orleans and Genesee (29th Senate District). Companies G, H, I, K, were transferred to the Fourth New York Artillery, June 4, 1865. Companies L and M were transferred to the Tenth New York Volunteer Infantry, and the remaining six companies mustered out June 5, 1866, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

NINTH REGIMENT.

This regiment (originally the One Hundred and Thirty-eighth New York Volunteer Infantry) was organized at Auburn, N. Y., to serve for three years. It was mustered into the service as such Sept. 8, 1862. A new company was organized and attached to this regiment, and the Twenty-Second N. Y. Independent Battery was transferred thereto, in 1863, as Companies L and M. The organization was raised in the counties of Cayuga and Wayne (Twenty-fifth Senate district), except Company M, which was raised in the county of Niagara. The regiment was consolidated into four companies and transferred to the Second regiment N. Y. Artillery June 27, 1865, and the officers rendered supernumerary were mustered out of service.

FIFTEENTH REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized at New York city, to serve for three years. The companies of which it was composed were raised, principally, in the counties of New York, Orange and Sullivan. It was mustered into the service of the United States from October 14 to December 19, 1861. Companies "A," "B," "C," "D" and "E" were formerly the Third Battalion N. Y. Artillery. A portion of the original members were mustered out by detachments, as their terms of service expired, and the organization, composed of veterans and recruits, remained in service until August 22, 1865, when mustered out in accordance with orders from the War Department.

TENTH REGIMENT.

This regiment was originally organized at New York city to serve two years. It was mustered into the service of the United States April 27 to May 2, 1861. On the expiration of its term of service the original members were mustered out, and the three year recruits consolidated into a battalion of six companies. On the 5th of June, 1865, it was filled up to ten companies by transfer of four companies from the Eighth New York Artillery. The consolidated force was mustered out of service June 30, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.

FORTIETH REGIMENT.

This regiment was raised and organized at New York city to serve three years. It was mustered into the service of the United States June 14th to 27th, 1861. The Eighty-seventh regiment N. Y. Vols. was consolidated with this organization in September, 1862. After consolidation into five companies, the three years' men of the Thirty-eighth regiment were transferred to the Fortieth regiment May 25th, 1863, as were also the veterans and recruits of the Thirty-seventh regiment. The original members were mustered out in July, 1864, and the veterans and recruits consolidated into a battalion of six companies. The Seventy-fourth regiment was consolidated with it July 27th, 1864. It was finally mustered out June 27th, 1865, in accordance with orders from the War Department.
