NINETY-FIRST REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized at Albany, N. Y., to serve three years. The companies of which it was composed were raised in the counties of Albany, Clinton, Columbia and Schenectady. It was mustered into the service of the United States from September to December, 1861. On the expiration of its term of service, the original members (except veterans) were mustered out, and the regiment, composed of veterans and recruits, retained in service until July 3, 1865, when it was mustered out in accordance with orders from the War Department.

RANK.	Name.	Brevet rank.
Private.....	Thomas E. Howe.....	Second Lieutenant.

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRD REGIMENT.

This regiment was organized at New York city to serve three years. The companies of which it was composed were raised in the counties of New York and Chemung. It was mustered into the service of the United States from November, 1861, to March, 1862. On the expiration of its term of service the original members (except veterans) were mustered out, and the veterans and recruits consolidated into a battalion of three companies, which remained in service until December 7, 1865, when mustered out in accordance with orders from the War Department.

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-SIXTH REGIMENT.

This regiment was originally intended to be a three years' organization, but, not succeeding in this, it was filled up with recruits enlisted for nine months, and mustered into the service of the United States at New York city from November 20, 1862, to January 10, 1863. The companies of which it was composed were raised in the State at large. The nine months' men were mustered out in November, 1863, and the regiment, which was filled up with drafted men and substitutes, was finally mustered out April 27, 1866, in accordance with orders from the War Department.
