Chap. 477.

AN ACT to provide for the enrollment of the militia, the organization and discipline of the National Guard of the State of New York, and for the public defence.

Passed April 23, 1862; by a two-third vote.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

OF THE PERSONS SUBJECT TO MILITARY DUTY.

SECTION 1. All able-bodied, white male citizens, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, residing in this state and not exempted by the laws of the United States, shall be subject to military duty, excepting:

1st. All persons in the army or navy or volunteer forces of the United States. Exceptions.

2d. Ministers and preachers of the gospel.

3d. The Lieutenant Governor, members and officers of the legislature, the Secretary of State, Attorney General, Comptroller, State Engineer and Surveyor, State Treasurer, and clerks and employees in their offices, judicial officers of this state, including justices of the peace, sheriffs, coroners and constables.

4th. Persons being of the people called Shakers or Quakers, professors, teachers and students in all colleges, and professors, teachers and students in the several academies and common schools.

5th. Persons who have been or hereafter shall be regularly and honorably discharged from the army or navy of the United States, in consequence of the performance of military duty, in pursuance of any law of this state and such firemen as are now exempted by law.

6th. Commissioned officers who shall have served as such in the militia of this state, or in any one of the United States, for the space of seven years; but no officer shall be so exempt unless by his resignation after such term of service duly accepted, or in some other lawful manner, he shall have been honorably discharged.

7th. Every non-commissioned officer, musician and private, of every uniform company or troop raised or hereafter to be raised, who has or shall hereafter uniform himself according to the provisions of any law of this state, and who shall have performed service in such company or troop for the space of seven years from the time of his enrollment therein, shall be exempt from military duty, except in cases of war, insurrection or invasion.

Time of service how computed.

§ 2. If any member of such company or troop, who shall have been regularly uniformed and equipped, shall, upon his removal out of the beat of such company or troop, or upon the disbandment thereof, enlist into any other uniform company or troop, and uniform and equip himself therefor, and serve in the same, whenever the whole time of his service in such companies or troops, computed together, shall amount to seven years, he shall be exempt from military duty in like manner as if he had served for the whole period in the company or troop in which he was first enrolled.

OF THE ENROLLMENT OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO MILITARY DUTY.

Enrollment

§ 4. Under the direction and superintendence of the Commander-in-Chief, all persons liable to military duty within this state, who are not already members of the organized militia thereof, shall, immediately upon the passage of this act, and from time to time thereafter, as the Commander-in-Chief shall deem necessary, but as often as once in every two years, be enrolled by the captain or commandant of the company district within whose bounds such person shall reside, or if there be no such captain or commandant, then by an officer to be detailed by the commanding officer of the regiment in which such company district is situated, or to be appointed by the Commander-in-Chief. Such enrollment

6th. Commissioned officers who shall have served as such in the militia of this state, or in any one of the United States, for the space of seven years; but no officer shall be so exempt unless by his resignation after such term of service duly accepted, or in some other lawful manner, he shall have been honorably discharged.

7th. Every non-commissioned officer, musician and private, of every uniform company or troop raised or hereafter to be raised, who has or shall hereafter uniform himself according to the provisions of any law of this state, and who shall have performed service in such company or troop for the space of seven years from the time of his enrollment therein, shall be exempt from military duty, except in cases of war, insurrection or invasion.

Time of
computed.

§ 2. If any member of such company or troop, who shall have been regularly uniformed and equipped, shall, upon his removal out of the beat of such company or troop, or upon the disbandment thereof, enlist into any other uniform company or troop, and uniform and equip himself therefor, and serve in the same, whenever the whole time of his service in such companies or troops, computed together, shall amount to seven years, he shall be exempt from military duty in like manner as if he had served for the whole period in the company or troop in which he was first enrolled.

§ 3. Idiots, lunatics, paupers, habitual drunkards and persons convicted of infamous crimes shall not be subject to military duty.

OF THE ENROLLMENT OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO MILITARY DUTY.

Enrollment

§ 4. Under the direction and superintendence of the Commander-in-Chief, all persons liable to military duty within this state, who are not already members of the organized militia thereof, shall, immediately upon the passage of this act, and from time to time thereafter, as the Commander-in-Chief shall deem necessary, but as often as once in every two years, be enrolled by the captain or commandant of the company district within whose bounds such person shall reside, or if there be no such captain or commandant, then by an officer to be detailed by the commanding officer of the regiment in which such company district is situated, or to be appointed by the Commander-in-Chief. Such enrollment shall distinctly specify the names and residences of the persons enrolled, and shall also divide the same into two classes, the persons between the ages of eighteen and thirty years to constitute one class, and the persons between the ages of thirty and forty-five years to constitute the other class; four copies of such enrollment shall be prepared by the officer making the same, one of which, after the same shall have been corrected as hereinafter provided, shall be retained by him, another shall be filed in the office of the town or city clerk in which such company district is situated, if there be such office, another shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county where such district is situated, and the fourth shall be filed in the Adjutant General's office; the officer making such enrollment may, with the approval of the Commander-in-Chief, appoint one or more of his non-commissioned officers or other proper persons, to assist in making said enrollment and copying said rolls; the persons making such enrollment shall be compensated at the rate of one dollar and fifty cents per day for every day necessarily spent in making and copying the same; the number of days to be certified by the commandant of the regiment, and not to exceed ten, and the amount of such compensation to be paid by the Comptroller upon production of such certificate, together with the certificates of the town clerk, county clerk and Adjutant General that such rolls have been duly filed in their offices. Such rolls shall be so filed on or before the first day of July in each year in which such enrollment shall be made.

Rolls to be filed.

Compensation.

Time for filing rolls.

§ 5. For the purpose of preparing such enrollment, the assessors in each city, village, town or ward of this state, shall allow captains or commandants of companies or other officers appointed for that purpose, as above provided, at all proper times to examine their assessment rolls and to take copies thereof, and the clerks of all towns and cities shall in like manner, at all proper times, allow the said commandant or other officer to examine and copy the poll lists on file in their offices.

Assessment rolls and poll lists may be examined.

§ 6. All tavern keepers, keepers of boarding houses, persons having boarders in their families, and any master and mistress of any dwelling house, shall, upon the application of any officer authorized to make such enrollment, give information of the names of all persons residing or lodging in such house liable to be enrolled, and all other proper information concerning such persons as such officer may demand.

Penalties for refusal.

§ 7. If any person of whom information is required by any such officer, in order to enable him to comply with the provisions of this act, shall refuse to give such information, or shall give false information, he shall forfeit and pay ten dollars for each item of information demanded of him by any such officer and falsely stated, and the like sum for each individual name that may be refused, concealed or falsely stated; and every person who shall refuse to give his own name and proper information, when applied to by any such officer, or shall give a false name or information, shall forfeit and pay a like sum; such penalties to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, in the name of the people of the State of New York; and it is hereby made the duty of such officer to report the names of all persons who may incur any penalty in this section prescribed, to the commandant of the regimental district in which they reside.

Publication to be made.

§ 8. Whenever an enrollment shall be made as provided in this act, the clerk of the board of supervisors of each county shall cause to be published, once a week for four weeks previous to the first day of August, in a newspaper published in such county, a notice that such rolls have been completed and filed as aforesaid, which notice shall also specify that any person who claims that he is, for any reason, exempt from military duty, shall on or before the fifteenth day of August, then next ensuing, file a written statement of such exemption verified by affidavit in the office of said town or city clerk, or of the county clerk, if there be no such town or city clerk, and the publication of such notice, shall be a sufficient notice of such enrollment to all persons named therein; such roll shall be made in the form prescribed by the Commander-in-Chief, and the Adjutant General shall furnish to all commandants of companies suitable blanks and instructions therefor.

Persons claiming to be exempt to file statement.

Blanks to be furnished.

§ 9. Such commandant shall not include in said enrollment the names of any officers nor members of the uniformed militia of this state, nor of the officers or members of any fire company, and the foreman of every fire company in any city, village or town of this state, shall,

members.

before the fifteenth day of May in each year, file in the office of the town or city clerk, a list containing the names of all persons belonging to their respective companies, which list shall show the town or ward in which each member of such company resides.

§ 10. All persons claiming exemptions shall file a written statement of the same verified by affidavit in the office of the town or city clerk, or of the county clerk, in case there be no such town or city clerk, on or before the fifteenth day of August, in default of which such person shall lose the benefit of such exemption, except such as are especially exempt by act of congress.

Time and place of filing exemptions.

§ 11. The captain, commandant, or other officer making such enrollment, shall thereupon, if such person be exempt, according to law, mark the word "exempt" opposite the name of each person presenting such exemption; if such exemption be permanent the name of such person shall not be included in any subsequent enrollment. If any person shall swear falsely in such affidavit, he shall be guilty of perjury.

Exempt persons not to be subsequently enrolled.

§ 12. The persons thus enrolled shall form the reserve militia of the state of New York; those between the ages of eighteen and thirty years shall constitute the reserve of the first class, and those between the ages of thirty and forty-five years shall constitute the reserve of the second class.

The reserve militia.

§ 13. The reserve militia of the first and second classes, except such as shall volunteer, or be drafted as members of the national guard as hereinafter provided, shall assemble in their several company districts, armed and equipped, as provided by law, for parade and inspection, on the first Monday of September in each year, at such hour and place as the captain or commandant shall designate in orders to be posted in three public places in the said company district for ten days, and shall be under the orders of the captain or commandant of such district, and such captain or commandant shall make a roster of all such as shall attend at such parade, armed and equipped as aforesaid, and shall file a copy of the same on or before the tenth day of October, in the office of the Adjutant General and of the county clerk.

Parade and inspection.

§ 14. All persons duly enrolled as aforesaid, who shall neglect to attend said parade, shall be subject to a fine of one dollar, which, if not paid to the county treasurer on or before the first day of December, shall be collected by the collector or receiver of taxes of the town or city in which such company district is situated, and the supervisors of the several counties at their annual meetings are authorized and directed to annex a list of the several delinquents with the fines set opposite their respective names to the assessment rolls of the several towns and wards, and the warrants for the collection of the same shall direct the collectors and receivers of taxes to collect the amount from every person appearing by the said assessment roll liable to pay the same, in the same manner as taxes are collected. The same to be paid to the county treasurer, and when the name of any person, between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one years shall appear on the said roll liable to pay the said fine, the said warrant shall direct the collector to collect the same of the father, master or guardian with whom such person shall reside, or out of any property such minor may have in the city, village, town or ward; and such collector shall proceed and execute such warrant and no property now exempt from execution shall be exempt from the payment of such fine.

Duty of county treasurer.

§ 15. The county treasurer of each county shall, on or before the fifteenth day of March in each year, pay to the Comptroller, upon his order, the sum of one dollar for each person so enrolled who does not appear from said roster to have attended such parade. And in case he shall not, on the presentation of such draft, have received all or any of the money directed by this act to be collected and paid to him, he is hereby authorized and directed to borrow an amount sufficient to pay said draft upon the credit of the county, and the sum borrowed shall be a county charge, to be assessed by the board of supervisors of said county at their next annual meeting, upon the taxable property of said county, and collected as other county assessments shall be assessed and collected. And it shall be the duty of the county treasurers of the several counties, and the commanding officers of the several regiments, to report and certify under oath to the board of supervisors at their annual meetings the deficiencies arising from the non-collection of military fines within their respective counties and regimental districts.

§ 16. The provisions of article first, title three, chapter thirteen of part first of the Revised Statutes, shall apply to this act so far as the same are applicable. Revised Statutes to apply.

§ 17. The bond required to be executed by the collector, receiver of taxes and county treasurer, shall apply to any moneys required to be collected for military purposes by this act. Bonds of collectors, &c., to apply.

§ 18. Any deficiency arising from the non-collection of said fines shall be a county charge, and shall be raised as aforesaid by the supervisors of said county by taxation, on the real and personal estates therein, in the manner now provided by law. Deficiencies to be a county charge.

§ 19. If any collector or receiver of taxes, county treasurer, town, county or city clerk, or supervisor, or any other civil or military officer, charged with any duty under the provision of this act, shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties required of him by this act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered in the name of the people of the State of New York; and if any of such officers shall willfully neglect or refuse to perform such duties as are hereby required, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and it shall be the duty of the district attorney of any county within which such delinquent offender resides, upon the complaint of the commanding officer of the regiment, to prosecute the same. Any penalty incurred and paid or collected under this section, shall be paid into the treasury of the county, and belong to the military fund of such regiment. Penalties of collectors, &c., in the case of neglect. Penalty to be paid into the county treasury.

OF THE GENERAL ORGANIZATION OF THE MILITIA, AND THE ORGANIZATION OF THE NATIONAL GUARD OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

OF ORGANIZATION.

§ 20. The Commander-in-Chief of the militia of this state shall organize and arrange the same, and the districts thereof, into divisions, brigades, regiments, battalions, squadrons, troops, batteries and companies, and cause the same to be numbered as nearly in conformity to the laws of the United States as local circumstances and the public convenience may permit, and may alter, divide, annex or consolidate the same and the districts Commander-in-chief to organize into districts, &c.

§ 16. The provisions of article first, title three, chapter thirteen of part first of the Revised Statutes, shall apply to this act so far as the same are applicable. Revised Statutes to apply.

§ 17. The bond required to be executed by the collector, receiver of taxes and county treasurer, shall apply to any moneys required to be collected for military purposes by this act. Bonds of collectors, &c., to apply.

§ 18. Any deficiency arising from the non-collection of said fines shall be a county charge, and shall be raised as aforesaid by the supervisors of said county by taxation, on the real and personal estates therein, in the manner now provided by law. Deficiencies to be a county charge.

§ 19. If any collector or receiver of taxes, county treasurer, town, county or city clerk, or supervisor, or any other civil or military officer, charged with any duty under the provision of this act, shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties required of him by this act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered in the name of the people of the State of New York; and if any of such officers shall willfully neglect or refuse to perform such duties as are hereby required, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and it shall be the duty of the district attorney of any county within which such delinquent offender resides, upon the complaint of the commanding officer of the regiment, to prosecute the same. Any penalty incurred and paid or collected under this section, shall be paid into the treasury of the county, and belong to the military fund of such regiment. Penalties of collectors, &c., in the case of neglect. Penalty to be paid into the county treasury.

OF ORGANIZATION.

§ 20. The Commander-in-Chief of the militia of this state shall organize and arrange the same, and the districts thereof, into divisions, brigades, regiments, battalions, squadrons, troops, batteries and companies, and cause the same to be numbered as nearly in conformity to the laws of the United States as local circumstances and the public convenience may permit, and may alter, divide, annex or consolidate the same and the districts Commander-in-chief to organize into districts, &c.

thereof, and dismiss supernumerary officers who were made such by an excess of officers of equal grade being thrown into any division, brigade, regimental or company district. The present divisions, brigades, regiments, battalions, troops, squadrons, batteries and companies, and the districts thereof, shall remain as now established by law, subject to the power of the Commander-in-Chief, to alter, divide, annex or consolidate the same as above set forth. Regimental districts, except in cities, shall conform, as nearly as convenient, to the assembly districts of this state.

guard.

§ 21. The organized militia of this state shall be known as "the National Guard of the State of New York," and shall consist of eight divisions, thirty-two brigades, and one hundred and twenty-eight regiments and battalions, and such batteries, troops or squadrons as may be formed in pursuance of the provisions of this act; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to interfere with the power of the Commander-in-Chief, in case of war or insurrection, or of imminent danger thereof, to make further drafts of the militia, and to form new regiments, battalions, brigades or divisions, and districts therefor.

Of what composed.

§ 22. The national guard shall include the present uniformed militia of this state, and such volunteers as shall enroll themselves therein in the several districts of this state, and such persons as may be drafted therein, as hereinafter provided, and shall be organized, and shall serve as engineers, artillery, light artillery, cavalry, infantry and rifles, as the Commander-in-Chief shall direct.

Commander-in-chief to appoint
and commission.

§ 23. The Commander-in-Chief is hereby authorized and empowered, so soon as may be convenient after the passage of this act, to appoint and commission the brigade, regimental and company officers, in the first instance, necessary to complete the organization of all military districts hereafter to be created, and to fill all vacancies necessary for the complete organization of all military districts now created in this state, but not sufficiently organized for an election. All officers superseded by such appointment shall become supernumerary officers.

Non-commissioned
officers.

§ 24. The commandant of each regimental district, for the purpose of organization, is hereby authorized and required to appoint the non-commissioned officers required by law for each company in his district, and to issue to such non-commissioned officers the proper warrants of their appointment, until the organization of such regiment shall be complete.

§ 25. The organization of the national guard shall conform to the provisions of the laws of the United States, and their system of discipline and exercise shall conform as nearly as may be to that of the army of the United States, as it now is or may hereafter be prescribed by congress. Organization and discipline.

§ 26. Company officers shall use their best efforts to obtain sufficient volunteers to raise their respective companies to the number of at least thirty-two non-commissioned officers and privates, which number is hereby fixed as the minimum, and one hundred as the maximum of such company organizations. Companies.

§ 27. In case any company of the national guard shall not, on or before the first day of October next, by voluntary enlistments, reach the minimum number of thirty-two non-commissioned officers and privates, or in case such company shall at any time fall below such minimum, or in case a sufficient number of persons shall not volunteer to organize new companies in the unorganized company districts, it shall be lawful for the Commander-in-Chief to order a sufficient number of persons to be drafted from the reserve militia of the first class, in the manner hereinafter provided, to raise such company to and maintain the same at such minimum number. The persons so drafted shall thereupon be enrolled as members of said company, and unless they shall find substitutes as hereinafter provided, shall be subject to the duties herein mentioned, and in case of non-performance of such duties shall be subject to the pains and penalties herein mentioned; and such persons or their substitutes shall be entitled to all the privileges and exemptions conferred under any of the terms of this act, provided that no new company shall be organized in time of peace, if thereby the entire force shall exceed thirty thousand officers and men. How filled up.

§ 28. To every company there shall be one captain, one first, one second lieutenant, four sergeants, four corporals and three musicians, except in companies of artillery and cavalry, which may have one first and two Officers.

second lieutenants, provided, however, that whenever any company shall exceed fifty rank and file it may have five sergeants and eight corporals.

Districts.

§ 29. Companies shall be formed in separate company districts when practicable, but the Commander-in-Chief may, in his discretion, organize more companies than one in the same district, or parts of a company in different districts.

Divisions, brigades
and regiments.

§ 30. Each division shall consist of not less than two brigades, each brigade not less than two regiments, each regiment of ten battalion companies.

Battalions.

§ 31. The Commander-in-Chief shall have power to organize, under the provisions of this act, battalions of infantry and rifles, and battalions, batteries or companies of artillery, or for special services where it is not expedient or convenient to form regimental organizations, or whenever the exigencies of the service may require.

Men not to leave company to join fire companies.

§ 32. No non-commissioned officer, musician or private belonging to any troop of cavalry or company of artillery, light artillery, rifleman or infantry shall leave the troop or company to which he belongs to serve as a fireman in any fire company now raised or hereafter to be raised in any city or county; nor shall he leave such troop or company and enlist in any other, without the written consent of the commandant of the regiment, battalion or battery, and of the squadron, troop or company to which he belongs, except he shall have removed out of the beat of such troop or company. Such exception shall not apply to any troop or company situate in any of the cities of this state.

Enlist-
ments.

§ 33. No person under the age of twenty-one years shall hereafter enlist in or join any uniform troop or company without the consent of his parent or guardian, master or mistress, unless drafted in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Officers.

§ 34. Every officer of the line and staff, and every officer and private of any uniform company of this state shall provide himself, according to the provisions of this act, with a uniform complete, which shall be such as the Commander-in-Chief shall prescribe, and subject to such restrictions, limitations and alterations as he may order.

§ 35. Any non-commissioned officer or private may, upon his enlistment or upon being drafted in accordance with the provisions of this act, if he so elect, be furnished at the expense of the state with the proper uniform and equipments of his regiment or corps; in such case an entry to that effect shall be made upon the company roll, and such uniform shall be furnished by the quartermaster general's department upon the requisition of the commandant of the company, countersigned by the commandant of the regiment or battalion; but such uniform and equipments shall in no case be different from those prescribed by the general regulations for the military forces of the State of New York, unless by special authority of the commander-in-chief.

State may furnish uniforms.

§ 36. In case such uniform and equipments be furnished in accordance with the last preceding section, the same shall be left at the company armory for safe keeping, and the person applying for the same shall be charged with the value thereof, and shall be entitled to receive half pay only for services, under this act, at drills, parades, encampments and lake and sea coast defence duty, until the sum charged against him therefor shall have been liquidated by such service, when such uniform and equipments shall become the property of such person.

Conditions

§ 37. Whoever shall presume to sell or dispose of such uniform or equipments, or to secrete or remove the same with intent to sell or dispose thereof, before the same shall become his property by such service as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than two or more than six months, or by a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty dollars nor less than fifty dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Penalty for disposing of such uniforms.

§ 38. The Quartermaster General shall, under the direction and with the approval of the Commander-in-Chief, cause to be manufactured in the several regimental districts of this state, the uniforms and equipments, which may from time to time be required for each regiment for the purposes mentioned in this act. And the Comptroller, upon the order of the Commander-in-Chief, shall draw his warrant upon the Treasurer for such sums as shall, from time to time, be expended for the purchase or manufacture of said uniforms and equipments: Provided, always, that the price paid for the same shall, in no case, exceed the prices established by the general regulations for the army of the United States for articles of like description.

Uniforms, how furnished.

Accounts to be audited.

§ 39. All vouchers and accounts under the last preceding section shall, from time to time, be audited by a committee to consist of the Comptroller, Treasurer, and Secretary of State.

Books of tactics.

§ 40. The Commander-in-Chief shall, from time to time, direct such books, as to him shall appear expedient, as a guide for the military forces of this state, to be provided, and shall furnish the same to all commissioned officers at the expense of the state.

Companies, &c., to be numbered.

§ 41. The Commander-in-Chief shall cause each company, squadron, troop, battery, battalion, regiment, brigade, and division to be numbered or lettered in such manner as he shall deem proper and best calculated to secure uniformity. Each company, squadron, troop, battery, battalion, regiment, brigade and division shall be known by its number and designation, which shall be registered at the Adjutant General's office.

Officers, how chosen.

§ 42. Non-commissioned officers shall be chosen from the members of the company to which they belong. All commissioned officers residing in any city or incorporated village in this state shall be deemed to be within the bounds of their respective commands, providing any part of the military district to which they properly belong shall be located within such city or village.

Existing companies.

§ 43. All existing uniformed companies, in any such regimental district, city or village, shall be deemed to be organized under the provisions of this act; but no such company shall be so constituted, unless at the time of such application it contains thirty-two non-commissioned officers and privates.

When six companies are organized, regimental officers to be chosen.

44. Whenever six uniformed companies shall be organized in any of the regimental districts of this state, the Commander-in-Chief shall order an election to be held for the choice of suitable persons to fill the offices of colonel, lieutenant colonel and major, in such regiment, by directing some suitable officer to give the proper notices of such election, and to preside thereat, unless such officers shall already have been elected or appointed.

§ 45. As soon as the field officers in the regiments in any of the brigade districts of this state shall be duly chosen and commissioned, the Commander-in-Chief shall order an election to be held for the choice of a suitable person to fill the office of brigadier general and brigade inspector in such brigade district, by directing some suitable officer to give the pro-<sup>Brigade officers.</sup> notices of such election and preside thereat, unless such brigadier general and brigade inspector shall already have been elected or appointed, as provided by this act.

§ 46. All commissioned officers rendered supernumerary by the provisions of this act, and every officer rendered supernumerary by any consolidation or alteration of regiments, battalions, squadrons, troops or companies, shall be entitled to all the privileges conferred by any preceding law (except command,) and shall be exempt from the performance of any military duty, except in cases of war and insurrection, provided they shall, within one year after being so rendered supernumerary, have reported themselves to the Adjutant General as such; provided, however, that no officer rendered supernumerary shall be entitled to vote at any election held for the choice of officers, or serve as a member of any court-martial. <sup>Supernumerary officers</sup>

§ 47. Volunteers under the provisions of this act may be received in any company of the national guard, whether such volunteer reside in the company district or not; but persons liable to military duty shall be drafted only in the district where they may reside. <sup>Volunteers received in any company.</sup>

§ 48. Any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician or uniformed private, who may change his residence from within the bounds of the first division into any adjacent county, or from within any county adjacent into the said division district, shall not thereby vacate his office or post, but he shall be held to duty in the division, brigade, regiment, troop or company to which he was attached at the time of such change of residence, and he shall be subject to duty therein and shall be entitled to all privileges, immunities and exemptions allowed by law, and shall be liable to fines and penalties, and the collection of them, in the same manner as if such change of residence had not taken place; and process for the collection of such fines and penalties may be executed in either New York or any adjacent county. <sup>Change of residence.</sup>

OF THE ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF MILITARY OFFICERS AND THE TENURE OF THEIR OFFICES

Major generals and commissary § 49. All major generals and the commissary general shall be nominated by the Governor, and appointed by him, with the consent of the Senate.

Adjutant General to commission § 50. The resolution of the Senate, concurring in any nomination made by the Governor to a military office, shall be certified by the president and clerk of the Senate, and be transmitted to the Adjutant General, who shall issue the commission and record the same in books to be provided by him.

Staff of Commander-in-chief. § 51. The staff of the Commander-in-Chief shall consist of the adjutant general, an inspector general, engineer-in-chief, judge advocate general, quartermaster general, commissary general of subsistence, paymaster general, surgeon general and three aids, who shall be appointed by the Governor, and whose commission shall expire with the time for which the Governor shall have been elected.

Commissary general. § 52. The commissary general shall hereafter be known as the commissary general of ordinance, and shall not enter on the duties of his office until he shall have taken the oath of office prescribed in the constitution. Such oath shall be taken before any officer authorized to administer the same oath to the Attorney General within the same period, and subject to the same regulations.

Captains and other officers, how chosen § 53. Captains, subalterns and non-commissioned officers of organized regiments shall be chosen by the written or printed votes of the members of their respective companies; field officers of organized regiments and battalions, by the written or printed votes of the commissioned officers of their respective regiments and battalions; and brigadier generals and brigade inspectors by the written or printed votes of the field officers of their respective brigades, if organized.

Staff of general officers. § 54. Major generals, brigadier generals, and commanding officers of regiments or battalions, shall appoint the staff officers of their respective divisions, brigades, regiments or battalions, whose term of office shall expire when the persons appointing them shall retire from office; but they shall continue to hold such office until their successors shall be appointed and have qualified.

Governor to commission § 55. The commissioned officers of the militia shall be commissioned by the Governor; and no commissioned officer can be removed from office unless by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Governor, stating the grounds on which such removal is recommended; or by the decision of a court martial, or retiring or examining board, pursuant to law. Removal of commissioned officers.

§ 56. Sergeant majors, quartermaster sergeants, sergeant standard bearers and drum majors shall be appointed by the commanding officer of the regiment or battalion to which they shall belong, by warrant under the hand of such commanding officer, and shall hold their offices during his pleasure. Subordinate officers how appointed.

§ 57. Whenever the office of a brigadier general is vacant in any organized brigade, the Commander-in-Chief shall issue an order for an election to fill the vacancy, and shall designate a major general or some other proper officer to preside at such election. Vacancies.

§ 58. The officer so designated shall cause a written or printed notice to be served on each of the field officers of the brigade in which the vacancy exists, at least ten days previous to the election, specifying the time and place of holding such election. Notice of election.

§ 59. Whenever the office of any field officer in any organized regiment or battalion is vacant, the commanding officer of the brigade to which such regiment or battalion belongs shall cause a written or printed notice to be served on each commissioned officer in such regiment or battalion of an election to fill the vacancy. The notice shall specify the time and place of holding the election, and be served at least five days before such election shall take place. Vacancy in field office.

§ 60. Whenever the office of a captain or subaltern in any organized company or troop is vacant, the commanding officer of the regiment or battalion to which such company or troop belongs, shall cause a written or printed notice of an election to fill the vacancy, to be served on the members of such company or troop, at least three days before the election shall take place, and shall specify in such notice the time and place of the election. Vacancy in office of captain or subaltern.

§ 61. All notices for any election shall be served on the persons entitled to vote thereat, in the same manner as non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates are warned to attend a parade, as prescribed in section one hundred and thirty-nine of this act. Notices, how served.

Return of service. § 62. The officer issuing the notice shall designate some proper person or persons to serve the same or to direct such service; and the person so designated shall make a return of the persons notified, and of the manner of the services.

Return how authenticated. § 63. The return, if made by a commissioned officer, shall be authenticated by his certificate on honor, if by a non-commissioned officer, by the oath of the person making such service. The oath may be administered by any magistrate or by the officer issuing the notice.

Officer to attend election. § 64. The officer causing the notice to be given for any of the aforesaid elections, shall attend at the time and place of holding such elections; he shall organize the meeting and preside thereat, and may, for sufficient cause, adjourn the same from time to time.

Presiding officer. § 65. If the officer causing the notices to be given shall not attend the meeting for the election, then the officer of the highest rank present, or in case of an equality of rank between two or more, then such of them as the majority of the electors present shall choose, shall preside at such meeting. And the officer issuing such notices, shall cause the proper evidence of service of such notices on all the electors to be delivered to such presiding officer. And at meetings for the election of company officers, the company roll, carefully revised, shall in like manner be delivered with such evidence. And if it shall happen at any election for commissioned officers that legal notice has not been given to all the persons entitled to vote thereat, the presiding officer shall adjourn the meeting, and cause such notice to be given. The presence of a person entitled to vote at any election shall be deemed a waiver of his right to take exception to the want of legal notice.

Polls. § 66. The presiding officer at any election for commissioned officers, shall keep the polls opened at least one hour after the time appointed for holding the same. Canvass. He shall then publicly canvass the votes received from the electors for the officers to be elected; and shall forthwith declare the result, and give notice to every person elected of his election. If such person shall not, within ten days after being notified of his election, signify to such officer his acceptance, he shall be considered as declining the office to which he shall have been chosen, and an election shall be held for a new choice.

§ 67. Immediately after the person elected shall have signified his acceptance, the officer who shall have presided at the election, shall, in case of the election of a brigadier general, communicate the same to the Commander-in-Chief; and in all other cases, if not himself the commanding officer of the brigade, shall certify to such commanding officer the names of the persons duly elected.

Certificate of election.

§ 68. If at any election an officer, then in commission, shall be elected to fill a vacancy, and shall accept, the electors present, whether such officer be present or absent, shall proceed to elect a person to fill the place of the officer so promoted, if the officers or persons assembled at such meeting have authority to make the choice.

Vacancy by promotion, how filled.

§ 69. The commanding officers of brigades shall transmit the names of persons duly elected and approved or appointed to offices in their respective brigades, to the Commander-in-Chief, to the end that commissions may be issued to them.

Names to be sent to Commander-in-chief.

§ 70. Every person thinking himself aggrieved by the proceedings at any election for a commissioned officer, may appeal, if the election be for a brigadier general, to the Commander-in-Chief, and in other cases to the commanding officer of the brigade to which such person belongs.

Appeal.

§ 71. The officer appealed to shall have power to administer oaths, and shall hear and determine the appeal; and if in his opinion the proceedings at such election are illegal, he shall declare the election void, and shall order an election to be held without delay for a new choice.

Appeal, how determined.

§ 72. Any person concerned may appeal from the decision of the commanding officer of the brigade to the Commander-in-Chief, who shall hear and determine such appeal, and in case it shall be necessary, order a new election.

Appeal to Commander-in-chief.

§ 73. The Commander-in-Chief may make such rules and regulations relative to appeals as he shall deem necessary and proper to give full effect to the provisions of the constitution and of this act.

Conduct of appeals.

§ 74. The Commander-in-Chief shall issue commissions to all officers duly elected or appointed in pursuance of the provisions of this act; and every officer duly commissioned shall, within ten days after his commission shall be tendered to him, or within ten days after he shall be personally notified that the same is held in readiness for him, by any superior officer, take and subscribe the oath prescribed in the constitution of this state; and in case of neglect or refusal to take such oath within the time mentioned, he shall be deemed to have resigned said office, and a new election shall be forthwith ordered to fill his place. The neglect or refusal of an officer elect to take such oath shall be no excuse for neglect of duty until another shall be duly commissioned in his place.

Oath. § 75. Every commissioned officer shall take and subscribe such oath before a judge of some court of record in this state, county clerk, commissioner to take affidavits, justice of the peace, or some general or field officer who has previously taken it himself, and who is hereby authorized to administer the same.

Copy to be filed. § 76. A certificate of the oath shall be endorsed by the officer administering the same on the commission, and a copy thereof shall be filed in the Adjutant General's office.

Fees. § 77. No fee shall be received for administering any such oath, or endorsing such certificate.

Vacancies in non-commissioned officers. § 78. Any organized company or troop may, at any meeting thereof, elect non-commissioned officers to fill any vacancy therein.

Elections, how conducted. § 79. Such election shall be directed and conducted by the commanding officer of such company or troop for the time being, who shall certify the names of the persons elected to the commanding officer of the regiment or battalion to which the company or troop belongs, who shall decide upon the legality of the election, and issue warrants to the persons duly elected.

Special meeting of companies. § 80. The commandants of companies or troops may, whenever they deem it necessary, call a special meeting of their respective companies or troops for an election of non-commissioned officers.

Votes necessary to a choice. § 81. A majority of the votes of all persons present at an election of brigadier general shall be necessary to a choice; in all other cases a plurality shall be sufficient.

Resignations. § 82. No officer shall be considered out of the service on the tender of his resignation until it shall have been accepted by the Commander-in-Chief. The commanding officers of brigades shall receive the resignations of such commissioned officers as may resign in their respective brigades, and shall transmit the same to the Adjutant General. Resignations of all other commissioned officers shall be made direct to the Commander-in-Chief.

§ 83. No officer shall be permitted to resign his commission who shall be under arrest, or shall be returned to a court-martial for any deficiency or delinquency; and no resignation shall be accepted unless the officer tendering the same shall furnish to the Adjutant General satisfactory evidence that he has delivered all moneys in his hands as such officer, and all books and other property of the state in his possession to his next superior or inferior officer, or to the officer authorized by law to receive the same, and that his accounts for money or public property are correct.

When not permitted to resign.

§ 84. In time of war, or when the military forces of this state are in actual service, resignations shall take effect thirty days from the date of the order of acceptance, unless otherwise specially ordered by the Commander-in-Chief.

Regulation in time of war.

§ 85. On accepting the resignation of any officer, the Commander in Chief shall cause the necessary notices and orders to be given for an election to fill the vacancy so created; provided, however, that when the military forces of this state shall be in the actual service thereof, or in the service of the United States in time of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof, the Commander-in-Chief shall fill all vacancies of commissioned officers, by appointment.

Vacancies, how filled.

§ 86. Every officer who shall move out of the bounds of his command (unless such removal shall not be beyond the bounds of a city in which such command shall lie in whole or in part,) and every officer who shall be absent from his command twelve months without leave of the commanding officer of his brigade, shall be considered as having vacated his office, and a new election shall be held, without delay, to fill the vacancy so created, except as above provided.

Removal from command.

§ 87. No person shall be allowed to vote at any election for a commissioned or non-commissioned officer of a company unless he is an actual member of such company where he shall offer to vote, and liable to do military duty therein.

Qualification of voters.

§ 88. If any person offering to vote at any election for a commissioned officer of a company shall be challenged as unqualified by any person entitled to vote thereat, the presiding officer shall declare to the person so challenged the qualifications of an elector.

Challenges.

Oath.

§ 89. If he shall state himself to be duly qualified, and the challenge shall not be withdrawn, the presiding officer shall then tender him the following oath: "You do swear (or affirm) that you are an actual member of the company commanded by _____, and that you are liable to do military duty therein."

Commission.

§ 90. The commissioned officer who shall receive a commission for any subordinate officer, shall, within thirty days thereafter, give notice thereof to the person entitled to it.

Military commission their powers and duties.

§ 91. The Commander-in-Chief is hereby authorized, so often as he may deem that the good of the service requires, to appoint a military board or commission of not less than three nor more than five officers, to sit at such place as he shall direct, whose duty it shall be to examine into the physical ability, moral character, capacity, attainments, general fitness for the service and efficiency of such commissioned officers as the Commander-in-Chief may order to be examined by said board, or who may be reported for examination to the Adjutant General by colonels of their regiments, or general officers commanding their brigades or divisions, and upon such report may be ordered to be examined by the Commander-in-Chief. If the decision of said board be unfavorable to such officer, and be approved by the Commander-in-Chief, the commission of such officer shall be vacated; provided, always, that no officer shall be eligible to sit on such board or commission whose rank or promotion would in any way be affected by its proceedings, and two members at least, if practicable, shall be of equal rank with the officer to be examined. The officers constituting such board shall receive the same pay and allowances for traveling expenses as members of courts-martial.

Compensation.

When officers not eligible.

§ 92. No officer whose commission shall have been vacated under the next preceding section shall be eligible for election to any military office for the period of one year, and his election shall be void; and in case the vacancy so created shall not, within thirty days, be filled by the election of some other and proper person, the Commander-in-Chief shall have power to fill such vacancy by appointment.

§ 93. If any commissioned officer shall have become or shall hereafter become incapable of performing the duties of his office, he shall be placed upon the supernumerary list, and withdrawn from active service and command.

Incapable officers to be supernumerary.

§ 94. In order to carry out the provisions of this act, the Commander-in-Chief shall from time to time, as occasion may require, cause to assemble a board of not less than three nor more than five commissioned officers, one of whom at least shall be of the medical staff, to determine the facts as to the nature and occasion of the disability of such officers as appear disabled or unfit from any cause to perform military service; such board being hereby invested with the powers of a court of inquiry and court martial, and their decision shall be subject to like revision as that of such courts by the Commander-in-Chief. The board, whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for active service, shall report such fact to the Commander-in-Chief, and if he approve such judgment, the disabled officer shall thereupon be placed upon the supernumerary list, according to the provisions of this act; provided, always, that the members of the board shall in every case be sworn to an honest and impartial performance of their duties, and that no officer shall be placed upon the supernumerary list by the action of said board without having had a fair and full hearing before the board, if upon due summons he shall demand it, nor shall any officer be summoned before such board unless reported to the Commander-in-Chief as incapable by a majority of the commissioned officers of his regiment, brigade or division, as the case may be.

Court of inquiry for disabled or unfit officers.

§ 95. In time of war, insurrection, invasion, or imminent danger thereof, when the military forces of this state shall be in the actual service thereof, the Commander-in-Chief shall have power, whenever the public interests may in his opinion so require, to suspend from active service such officer or officers as he shall deem it discreet so to suspend and fill the vacancy thus created by appointment; but no such suspension shall continue for a longer period than thirty days, unless a court martial shall have in the meantime been ordered for the trial of such officer or officers.

Power of suspension.

Return to be evidence § 115. Such return, so sworn to, shall be received as evidence in all cases, in the same manner as like returns of non-commissioned officers of infantry companies.

§ 116. Such commanding officer shall make the like <sup>Delin-</sup> returns of all such delinquents and delinquencies, as in <sup>quents.</sup> cases of non-commissioned officers and musicians in companies of infantry, and with like effect, and the courts martial shall impose the like penalties on such delinquent members of said band.

§ 117. The commanding officer of such regiment or <sup>How dis-</sup> battalion shall have authority to disband such band, <sup>banded.</sup> whether now or hereafter established, and to revoke the warrant of its leader.

§ 118. The provisions of this article shall apply to all musicians employed to serve with the military forces of this state.

OF THE ISSUING AND SAFE KEEPING OF ARMS.

§ 119. Whenever any company, organized under the <sup>Armories.</sup> provisions of this act, shall have reached the minimum number of thirty-two non-commissioned officers and privates, the supervisors of the county in which such company district is situated shall, upon the demand of the captain or commandant of such company, countersigned by the colonel of the regiment, together with the certificate of the Adjutant General, that such company comprises thirty-two non-commissioned officers and privates, erect or rent within the bounds of such regiment, for said company, a suitable and convenient armory, drill room and place of deposit for the safe keeping of such arms, uniforms, equipments, accoutrements and camp equipage as shall be furnished such company under the provisions of this act; except in such places where a public armory shall then exist, the same armory to be used by several companies, or a regimental or battalion armory to be used by all the companies, as the inspector general shall deem expedient.

§ 120. The expense of erecting or renting such armories shall be a portion of the county charges of such <sup>Expense to be a county charge.</sup> county, and shall be levied and raised in the same manner as other county charges are levied and paid.

§ 121. In case such armory shall not be erected or <sup>Renting of armories.</sup> rented by the supervisors for the use of such company, the commandant of the regiment, in his discretion, with the approval of the inspector general, may rent a room or building to be used for the purpose of such armory, and the amount of rent thereof, provided the same shall § 116. Such commanding officer shall make the like <sup>Delin-</sup> returns of all such delinquents and delinquencies, as in <sup>quents.</sup> cases of non-commissioned officers and musicians in companies of infantry, and with like effect, and the courts martial shall impose the like penalties on such delinquent members of said band.

§ 117. The commanding officer of such regiment or <sup>How dis-</sup> battalion shall have authority to disband such band, <sup>banded.</sup> whether now or hereafter established, and to revoke the warrant of its leader.

§ 118. The provisions of this article shall apply to all musicians employed to serve with the military forces of this state.

OF THE ISSUING AND SAFE KEEPING OF ARMS.

§ 119. Whenever any company, organized under the <sup>Armories.</sup> provisions of this act, shall have reached the minimum number of thirty-two non-commissioned officers and privates, the supervisors of the county in which such company district is situated shall, upon the demand of the captain or commandant of such company, countersigned by the colonel of the regiment, together with the certificate of the Adjutant General, that such company comprises thirty-two non-commissioned officers and privates, erect or rent within the bounds of such regiment, for said company, a suitable and convenient armory, drill room and place of deposit for the safe keeping of such arms, uniforms, equipments, accoutrements and camp equipage as shall be furnished such company under the provisions of this act; except in such places where a public armory shall then exist, the same armory to be used by several companies, or a regimental or battalion armory to be used by all the companies, as the inspector general shall deem expedient.

§ 120. The expense of erecting or renting such armories shall be a portion of the county charges of such <sup>Expense to be a county charge.</sup> county, and shall be levied and raised in the same manner as other county charges are levied and paid.

§ 121. In case such armory shall not be erected or <sup>Renting of armories.</sup> rented by the supervisors for the use of such company, the commandant of the regiment, in his discretion, with the approval of the inspector general, may rent a room or building to be used for the purpose of such armory, and the amount of rent thereof, provided the same shall not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars for each company, in the several cities of this state, and fifty dollars for companies not located in cities shall be a county charge, and shall be paid by such supervisors, and levied and raised as hereinbefore provided.

Armory to be subject to commanding officer.

§ 122. Such armory, when erected or rented, shall be under the control and charge of the commanding officer of the regiment in whose bounds or district it shall be located; and such commanding officer shall deposit therein all arms and equipments received from time to time for the use of any company in his regiment.

Arms and equipments

§ 123. The commissary general of the state shall furnish, on the order of the Commander-in-Chief, all necessary arms and equipments, suited to the particular company or corps belonging to each regiment, required for camp and field duty; the same to be furnished at the expense of the state, including transportation. But no arms or equipments shall be furnished to any company or corps, unless such company or corps shall be connected with the regular military organization of the state.

Commanding officer to be responsible.

§ 124. The commanding officer of each regiment or company shall be responsible for the safe keeping and return of all arms and equipments committed to his charge, and shall execute such bonds as the Commander-in-Chief shall require from time to time; and no company shall be so furnished until bonds for the safe keeping and return shall be made out and approved by the Commander-in-Chief, and until a suitable armory or place of deposit shall be assigned, rented or erected in such regiment.

Distribution of arms

§ 125. The commanding officer of any regiment or company who shall have received, according to the provisions of this act, any arms and equipments from the state for the use of his regiment or company, shall distribute the same to his regiment or company, as he shall deem proper, and require of those to whom they were distributed to return them at such time and place as he shall order and direct; and any officer who shall neglect or refuse to comply, with such order shall forfeit the sum not to exceed double the price of any arms or equipments he shall have received, to be sued for and collected in the name of the commandant of the regiment, for the use of the military fund of such regiment.

Penalty.

§ 126. The commanding officer of each regiment shall appoint a suitable person to take charge of the armory, <sup>Keeper of armory.</sup> armories or place of deposit of his regiment, or of the several companies in his regiment, and all arms, equipments and other property of the state therein deposited, and to discharge all duties connected therewith, as shall be from time to time prescribed by the commanding officer.

§ 127. Such person so appointed shall receive a compensation not to exceed one dollar per day for the time <sup>Compensation.</sup> actually employed in cleaning guns, and other duties indispensably necessary for the safe keeping and preservation of such property of the state as shall be committed to his charge.

§ 128. The Commander-in-Chief shall, from time to <sup>Rules.</sup> time, make such orders, rules and regulations as he may deem proper for the observance of all officers having charge of any armory in which arms of the people of this state shall be deposited.

§ 129. Whenever the commissioned officers of any uniformed company in this state shall make application to the commanding officer of their regiment for any arms or equipments, suited to the corps to which their company may belong, and who shall, at the same time furnish such commanding officer with sufficient bonds for the safe <sup>Bonds for safe keeping.</sup> keeping and return of the same, he may deliver to such officers such arms and equipments belonging to this state as he shall deem proper; but no such arms or equipments, shall be delivered unless the bonds given for the safe keeping and return thereof shall be approved by the sureties who became responsible in the bonds furnished to the Commander-in-Chief for all such arms and equipments

§ 130. Any person who shall willfully injure such <sup>Penalty.</sup> armory or its fixtures, or any gun, sword, pistol or other property of the state therein deposited, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 131. The Commissary General may, from time to <sup>Examination of armory.</sup> time, require any officer to examine any armory provided as aforesaid, and report to him the condition thereof, and of the arms and camp equipage therein deposited.

§ 132. All officers applying for the issue of camp <sup>Camp equipage.</sup> equipage shall set forth in their application the number of tents which they will require, the time when their respective regiments or companies go into camp, and the number of days which such encampment will continue; and the commanding officer of each camp shall, immediately after the breaking up of the encampment, cause the equipage to be returned to such of the state arsenals, or turned over to such officer as may be directed by the Adjutant-General; provided, however, that such tents and camp equipage shall be deposited in some one of the state arsenals on or before the first day of November in each year.

OF THE DRILLS, PARADES AND RENDEZVOUS OF THE NATIONAL GUARD, AND OF COMPENSATION FOR MILITARY SERVICES.

§ 133. Whenever any company or companies shall be organized, uniformed and equipped in any regimental district of this state, such company or companies shall parade annually thereafter by regiment, battalion or company, at such time and place, between the first day of May and the first day of November, as the commanding officers of their respective brigades shall order and direct, for the purpose of discipline, inspection and review. At any such parade, all the commissioned and non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates shall appear and discharge any and all the duties required to be performed by the commanding officer. No person shall be permitted in the ranks on any parade who does not appear in full uniform, and armed and equipped suited to the company to which he belongs; and no person shall be permitted in the ranks who is not fully armed and equipped according to the provisions of this act and the laws of the United States; and all members who shall appear without such arms and equipments, or without a uniform, at any parade, shall be returned as absent from parade, and fined accordingly.

Six drills or parades annually.

§ 134. In addition to the annual inspection herein specified, there shall be six drills or parades of the national guard in each year, not less than three of which shall be by regiment or battalion, and at such times and places as the Commander-in-Chief, commandant of division, brigade, regiment or battalion, shall direct.

Power of commanding officer.

§ 135. The commanding officer, at any parade, may cause those under his command to perform any field or

§ 133. Whenever any company or companies shall be organized, uniformed and equipped in any regimental district of this state, such company or companies shall parade annually thereafter by regiment, battalion or company, at such time and place, between the first day of May and the first day of November, as the commanding officers of their respective brigades shall order and direct, for the purpose of discipline, inspection and review. At any such parade, all the commissioned and non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates shall appear and discharge any and all the duties required to be performed by the commanding officer. No person shall be permitted in the ranks on any parade who does not appear in full uniform, and armed and equipped suited to the company to which he belongs; and no person shall be permitted in the ranks who is not fully armed and equipped according to the provisions of this act and the laws of the United States; and all members who shall appear without such arms and equipments, or without a uniform, at any parade, shall be returned as absent from parade, and fined accordingly.

Six drills or parades annually.

§ 134. In addition to the annual inspection herein specified, there shall be six drills or parades of the national guard in each year, not less than three of which shall be by regiment or battalion, and at such times and places as the Commander-in-Chief, commandant of division, brigade, regiment or battalion, shall direct.

Power of commanding officer.

§ 135. The commanding officer, at any parade, may cause those under his command to perform any field or camp duty he shall require; and also to put under guard for the day or time of continuing such parade, any officer, musician or private who shall disobey the orders of his superior officer, or in any way interrupt the exercises of the day; also, all other persons who shall trespass on the parade ground, or in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty of those under arms; and also may prohibit and prevent the sale of all spirituous liquors within one mile of such parade or encampment; and also, in his discretion, all hucksters, or auction sales or gambling may be abated as nuisances.

§ 136. In addition to the drills and parades above specified, the commanding officers of companies may require the officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates of their companies to meet for company drill and parade once in each month from November to May, and so much oftener as a majority of the members of such company shall prescribe in and by the by-laws for the government of the same.

Company
parades.

§ 137. No parade or rendezvous of the national guard shall be ordered on any day during which a general or special election shall be held, nor within five days previous to such election, except in cases of riot, invasion or insurrection, or of imminent danger thereof; and if any officer shall order any such parade or rendezvous, he shall forfeit and pay to the people of this state the sum of five hundred dollars.

days.

§ 138. For the purpose of warning the non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates to any parade, encampment or place of rendezvous, the commandant of each company shall issue his orders, under his hand, to his non-commissioned officers, or to such of them as he may deem proper, requiring them respectively to warn all the non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates of his company to appear at such parade, encampment or place of rendezvous, armed and equipped according to law and regulation.

Warnings.

§ 139. Each non-commissioned officer to whom such order shall be directed, shall warn every person whom he shall be therein required to warn, by reading the orders, or stating the substance thereof in the hearing of such person; or in case of his absence, by leaving a notice thereof at his usual place of abode or business, with some person of suitable age and discretion, or by sending the same to him by mail, directed to him at the postoffice nearest his place of residence.

Return.

§ 140. Such non-commissioned officer shall make a return to his commandant, in which he shall state the names of all persons by him warned, and the manner of warning them respectively, and shall make oath to the truth of such return; which oath shall be administered by the commandant, and certified by him on the warrant or return.

Commandant's return

§ 141. Such commandant shall deliver the return, together with his own return of all delinquencies, to the president of the proper court martial.

Return to be evidence

§ 142. The return of such non-commissioned officer, so sworn to and certified, shall be as good evidence, on the trial of any person returned as a delinquent, of the facts therein stated, as if such officer had testified to the same before the court martial on such trial.

Return of delinquents

§ 143. Every commandant of a company shall make the like return, upon honor, and with like effect, of every delinquency and neglect of duty of his non-commissioned officers, either in not attending on any parade or encampment, or not executing or returning a warrant to them directed, or not obeying the orders of their commanding officers; and also the names of every non-commissioned officer, musician or private who shall refuse or neglect to obey the orders of his superior officer, or to perform such military duty or exercise as may be required, or depart from his colors, post or guard, or leave the ranks without permission from his superior officer.

Warning by commissioned officers.

§ 144. Any commissioned officer of a company may, without a warrant, warn any or all of the members of his company to appear at any parade, encampment or place of rendezvous. Such warning may be given by him, either personally or by leaving or affixing a notice, in the same manner as if given by a non-commissioned officer; and his certificate, upon honor, shall be received by any court martial as legal evidence of such warning.

Evidence.

§ 145. Nothing in the provisions of this act shall be so construed as to preclude, in the absence of a proper return, the giving in evidence, at any court martial upon trial for delinquencies, neglects of duty or offence whatsoever, matters of fact which go to substantiate the charge or offence; but all such proof shall be received under the usual rules of evidence in courts of justice.

§ 146. Every non-commissioned officer, musician and private of any uniform corps of this state shall be holden to duty therein for the term of seven years from his enlistment, unless disability after enlistment shall incapacitate him to perform such duty, or he shall be regularly discharged by the commandant of his regiment; all general and staff officers, all field officers, and all commissioned and non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates of the military forces of this state, shall be exempt from jury duty during the time they shall perform military duty, and from the payment of highway taxes, not exceeding six days in any one year; and every such person not assessed for highway taxes shall be entitled to a deduction, in the assessment of his real and personal property, to the amount of five hundred dollars; and every person who shall have served seven years, and shall have been honorably discharged, as required by this section, shall forever after, so long as he remains a citizen of this state, be exempt from two days' highway taxes in each year; and if a resident of any city of this state, he shall forever be entitled to a deduction in the assessment of his real and personal property, to the amount of five hundred dollars each year; the exemption and deduction herein provided for to be allowed only on the production, to the assessor or assessors of the town or ward in which he resides, of a certificate from the commanding officer of the regiment in which he last served.

§ 147. All notices, warrants or summons for officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates of any company or troop to attend a drill, improvement meeting or court martial, may be served either personally or by leaving a written or printed notice, containing the substance of such notice, warrant or summons, at the dwelling house, store, counting house or usual place of business of the person to be notified, warned or summoned, with some person of suitable age and discretion; and any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician or private may also be warned to attend any parade, encampment or drill by enclosing a notice, directed to him at his place of residence, by mail, directed to him at his nearest post office, at least five days before the service required of him.

drills, &c.

Officers
drills.

§ 148. The officers and non-commissioned staff officers of each regiment shall be warned to attend any parade or drill in the same manner as is prescribed by law for the warning of the privates of any company, and the commanding officer of each regiment may designate and order any or all of the non-commissioned staff officers of the regiment to perform that duty, who shall make return thereof to the commanding officer or the adjutant of the regiment, in the same manner and under the same penalties for delinquencies as are by law imposed on non-commissioned officers of companies for similar delinquencies.

Publishing of orders for encampment.

§ 149. All orders for encampment, inspection and review shall be published at least twenty days previous to such parade, in such manner as the commandant of the brigade shall direct, and notice thereof shall at the same time be given to the Inspector General; and all commanding officers of regiments, battalions or companies, may, on any parade, read brigade, regimental or battalion orders, and notify their several commands to appear as specified in said brigade or regimental order for the purposes therein contained, which notice shall be a sufficient warning to all persons present.

Penalty for neglect.

§ 150. Every officer, non-commissioned officer, musician and private of any uniformed company, who shall unnecessarily neglect to appear on the days at the time and place appointed for such duty, agreeably to the provisions of this act, shall be subject to such fines and penalties as are hereinafter provided.

Meetings for exercise

§ 151. The commanding officer of any brigade, regiment or battalion, in addition to the rendezvous above prescribed, may require the commissioned officers and non-commissioned officers to meet for exercise and improvement, at such times and places as he shall appoint; and he may require them to appear with such arms and accoutrements as he may prescribe; said officers shall thereupon be formed into a corps of instruction, without regard to rank, and shall be thoroughly instructed in the manual of arms, the school of the soldier and company, and in such other theoretical and practical details of duty as the said commanding officer shall deem proper.

§ 190. Such court shall, without delay, report the evidence adduced, a statement of facts, and an opinion thereon, when required, to the officer instituting such

Duties
when convened.

§ 186. Such board, when so convened, shall audit all just claims on the military fund of such regiment for contingent expenses of the regiment, and shall make their order on the proper county treasurer, which shall require him to pay such order out of any money in his hands belonging to the military fund of such regiment.

Printing and pay of board.

§ 187. Such board may also direct such printing and publishing to be performed and executed as shall be necessary for the best interest of the regiment and service; the members of such board shall be entitled to receive for each day's service, as such members, the sum of two dollars, for not more than three days in any one year; such sum to be certified and paid in the same manner. Such board shall enter their proceedings from time to time in a book to be kept for that purpose by each regiment.

Treasurers to report
moneys, &c

§ 188. All county and city treasurers shall report to the brigadier-general, within the bounds of whose brigades he may reside, the amount of all moneys received by them, respectively, by the first days of April and December, annually, and the balance then remaining in their hands, and the number of the regiment to which the same belongs.

OF THE COURTS OF INQUIRY AND COURTS MARTIAL.

OF THE COURTS OF INQUIRY AND COURTS MARTIAL FOR THE TRIAL OF OFFICERS.

Court, how constituted.

§ 189. Courts of inquiry may be instituted by the Commander-in-Chief, or the commanding officer of division or brigade, in relation to those officers for whose trial they are authorized to appoint courts martial for the purpose of investigating the conduct of any officer, either by his own solicitation or on a complaint or charge of improper conduct degrading to the character of an officer, or for the purpose of settling rank; but no such court shall consist of more than one officer, who may, if approved of by the officer ordering the court, require a judge-advocate to attend such court in taking testimony, and in investigating any complaint that may come before such court.

To report
evidence without delay.

court, who may in his discretion thereupon appoint a court martial for the trial of the officer whose conduct shall have been inquired into.

§ 191. Every court martial for the trial of a major general shall be ordered by the Commander-in-Chief, and shall consist of five officers, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum. Trial of major general.

§ 192. Every court martial for the trial of a brigadier general shall be ordered by the Commander-in-Chief, and shall consist of five officers, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum. Brigadier General.

§ 193. All other courts martial for the trial of commissioned officers shall consist of three officers, and shall be ordered, if for the trial of officers above rank of captain, by the commanding officer of division, and for all other officers, by the commanding officer of brigade. Commissioned officers.

§ 194. No officer arrested shall be brought to trial unless a copy of the charges and specifications, certified by the officer ordering the arrest, shall be delivered to him, or left at his usual place of abode, within three days after his arrest; nor unless the officer ordering such court martial shall have ordered the same within thirty days after receiving notice of the arrest, and a copy of the charges and specifications; nor until ten days after a copy of a list of the names of the officers detailed to form the court shall have been delivered to the officer arrested, or left at his usual place of abode. Charges and specifications to be personally served.

§ 195. The officer ordering the court may, at any time, supply any vacancy that, from any cause, may happen therein. Vacancies.

§ 196. If the officer accused shall have any cause of challenge to any member of such court, he shall, within a reasonable time after receiving a copy of the charges and a list of the members, deliver his cause of challenge, in writing, to the officer ordering such court, who shall thereupon determine as to the validity of such challenge; and if, in his opinion, the causes are sufficient, he shall appoint another member of such court. Challenges.

§ 197. After the court shall be assembled, and after all challenges, if any are made, shall have been determined, the judge advocate, whether commissioned or special, shall administer to each member the following oath: "You, _____, do swear that you will faithfully discharge the duties of a member of a court Oath.

martial now assembled, according to the best of your ability."

Sentence to be kept secret.

§ 198. Every judge advocate, whether commissioned or special, and every member of a court martial, shall keep secret the sentence of the court, until the same shall be approved or disapproved according to law; and shall keep secret the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court, unless required to give evidence thereof by a court of justice.

Effect of sentence.

§ 199. The sentence of any such court martial shall be according to the nature and degree of the offence, and according to military usage; but shall not extend farther, in time of peace, than cashiering the officer convicted, and disqualifying him from holding any office in the militia of this state, and imposing a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

When to be executed.

§ 200. The proceedings and sentence of every court martial shall, without delay, be delivered to the officer ordering the court, who shall approve or disapprove thereof within fifteen days thereafter, and shall give notice of his approval or disapproval to the president of such court martial and to the arresting officer, and he may, at his discretion, publish the sentence, as approved or disapproved, in orders; but no part of such sentence shall be executed until after the time allowed for appeal has expired.

Full proceedings to be sent to Adjutant General.

§ 201. He also shall transmit such proceedings and sentence, and his approval or disapproval thereof, to the Adjutant General, to be kept in his office.

Appeal.

§ 202. The right of appeal to the Commander-in-Chief, as it now exists by military usage, is reserved; but no appeal shall be received, unless made within twenty days after the decision appealed from is made known to the person appealing.

Compensation.

§ 203. There shall be allowed and paid out of the treasury, to each division and brigade judge advocate, and to each president and member of any court of inquiry or court martial for the trial of officers, two dollars for each day actually employed on duty; and the like compensation to every marshal appointed by any such court, for every day employed in the execution of the duties required of him.

Accounts to be audited.

§ 204. The accounts of all persons who under this article are entitled to be paid out of the treasury, shall be audited by the Comptroller, who shall, on the application of the Governor, draw his warrant on the Treasurer for such sums of money as may be requisite in the execution of the provisions of this act; and may require the chief of each staff department to account quarterly for all money received by him for the purposes connected with his department.

OF REGIMENTAL AND BATTALION COURTS MARTIAL.

§ 205. The commandant of each brigade may at any time appoint a regimental or battalion court martial for any regiment or battalion in his brigade, to consist, if practicable of a field officer or captain.

Court to consist of field officer or captain.

§ 206. The appointment of said court shall be published in orders at least three weeks previous to the convening of the court; and the officer appointing said court shall fix the day on which it shall convene, and when convened the court may adjourn from time to time, as shall become necessary for the transaction of business, but the whole session of the court, from the day on which it shall convene until its dissolution, shall not exceed three weeks.

Appointment of court to be published.

§ 207. In case any vacancy shall happen in the court, or a new court shall be required, the officer ordering the court, or his successor in command, may fill such vacancy or order a new court.

Vacancy.

Oath.

§ 209. Such oath shall be taken by the president, on or before the day on which the court shall convene, before a justice of the county in which he may reside, or a field officer of his regiment or battalion; and it shall be the duty of such justice or field officer to administer the oath without fee or reward.

Before whom taken.

§ 210. Such court shall direct a non-commissioned officer, or other fit person or persons, to be by him designated to summon all delinquents and parties accused to appear before the court, at a time and place to be by

be audited by the Comptroller, who shall, on the application of the Governor, draw his warrant on the Treasurer for such sums of money as may be requisite in the execution of the provisions of this act; and may require the chief of each staff department to account quarterly for all money received by him for the purposes connected with his department.

OF REGIMENTAL AND BATTALION COURTS MARTIAL.

§ 205. The commandant of each brigade may at any time appoint a regimental or battalion court martial for any regiment or battalion in his brigade, to consist, if practicable of a field officer or captain.

Court to consist of field officer or captain.

§ 206. The appointment of said court shall be published in orders at least three weeks previous to the convening of the court; and the officer appointing said court shall fix the day on which it shall convene, and when convened the court may adjourn from time to time, as shall become necessary for the transaction of business, but the whole session of the court, from the day on which it shall convene until its dissolution, shall not exceed three weeks.

Appointment of court to be published.

§ 207. In case any vacancy shall happen in the court, or a new court shall be required, the officer ordering the court, or his successor in command, may fill such vacancy or order a new court.

Vacancy.

Oath.

§ 209. Such oath shall be taken by the president, on or before the day on which the court shall convene, before a justice of the county in which he may reside, or a field officer of his regiment or battalion; and it shall be the duty of such justice or field officer to administer the oath without fee or reward.

Before whom taken.

§ 210. Such court shall direct a non-commissioned officer, or other fit person or persons, to be by him designated to summon all delinquents and parties accused to appear before the court, at a time and place to be by Summons to accused parties.

him appointed, which service shall be personal or by leaving such summons at the residence of such parties.

Return.

§ 211. Such non-commissioned officer, or other person or persons so designated, shall make the like return, and with like effect as commissioned and non-commissioned officers are authorized and required to make, in cases of warning to a company or regimental parade, and shall be subject to the like penalties for neglect of duty.

Jurisdiction.

§ 212. The court, when organized, shall have the trial of all offences, delinquencies and deficiencies in the regiment or battalion for which it shall have been called, and shall have power to impose and direct to be levied all the fines to which non-commissioned officers, musicians or privates are declared to be subject by the provisions of this act.

Appeal.

§ 213. From the sentence of any such court, imposing a fine for any offence, delinquency or deficiency, an appeal if made within twenty days, shall be allowed to the officer instituting the court, or to his successor in command, who may remit or mitigate such penalty or fine.

Compensation.

§ 214. There shall be allowed and paid out of the military fund of said regiment :

1. To the officer constituting said court, a sum equal to one day's pay for field duty, for each day he may be actually employed in holding the court or engaged in the business thereof, or in traveling to or from the court, allowing thirty miles for a day's travel.

2. To the non-commissioned officer or other person who shall have summoned delinquents to appear before the court, one dollar and twenty-five cents for each day he may have been necessarily so employed, and the same sum for each day of his attendance on the court.

3. Each officer to whom a warrant for the collection of fines may be directed, shall be entitled to the same fees and be subject to the same penalties for any neglect, as are allowed and provided for on executions issued out of justices' courts.

4. For all other services and commitments under this act, the sheriff, jailor and constables executing the same shall be entitled to the like fees as for similar services in other cases.

Fines to whom paid.

§ 215. All fines and penalties imposed by any regimental or battalion court martial shall be paid, by the officer collecting the same, to the treasurer of the county within which the officer instituting the court may reside, and shall belong to the military fund of such regiment.

OF THE IMPOSITION OF PENALTIES AND FINES FOR VIOLATING THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT.

§ 216. In time of peace, every commissioned officer, <sup>Penalties on commissioned officers.</sup> for disobedience of orders, neglect or ignorance of duty, unofficer like conduct or disrespect to a superior officer, or for neglecting to furnish himself with a uniform and equipments within six months after receiving his commission, shall be arrested and brought to trial before a court martial, who may, on conviction, sentence him to be cashiered, incapacitated from holding any military commission, or fined to an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to be reprimanded, or may sentence him to all or either of such penalties, in their discretion.

§ 217. Every commissioned officer refusing to pay <sup>Neglect to pay over moneys.</sup> over moneys in his hands, as is directed by the provisions of this act, shall be liable to be tried and cashiered, or otherwise punished therefor, by a court martial.

§ 218. Every commissioned officer, and every non-<sup>Fines.</sup> commissioned officer, musician and private shall on due conviction, be subject for the following offences to the fines thereto annexed :

1. Every non-commissioned officer, musician and private, for non-appearance, when duly warned or summoned at a company parade, a fine of two dollars; at a regimental or battalion parade or encampment, not less than three nor more than six dollars; and at a place of rendezvous, when called into actual service, a sum not exceeding twelve month's pay, nor less than one month's pay.

2. Every commissioned officer, for non-attendance at any parade or encampment, and every such officer, non-commissioned officer, musician and private neglecting or refusing to obey the orders of his superior officers on any day of parade or encampment, or to perform such military duty or exercise as may be required, or departing from his colors, post or guard, or leaving his place or ranks without permission, a fine not more than one hundred nor less than five dollars.

3. For neglecting or refusing to obey any order or warrant to him lawfully given or directed, or to make a

OF THE IMPOSITION OF PENALTIES AND FINES FOR VIOLATING THE PROVISIONS OF THIS ACT.

§ 216. In time of peace, every commissioned officer, <sup>Penalties on commissioned officers.</sup> for disobedience of orders, neglect or ignorance of duty, unofficer like conduct or disrespect to a superior officer, or for neglecting to furnish himself with a uniform and equipments within six months after receiving his commission, shall be arrested and brought to trial before a court martial, who may, on conviction, sentence him to be cashiered, incapacitated from holding any military commission, or fined to an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to be reprimanded, or may sentence him to all or either of such penalties, in their discretion.

§ 217. Every commissioned officer refusing to pay <sup>Neglect to pay over moneys.</sup> over moneys in his hands, as is directed by the provisions of this act, shall be liable to be tried and cashiered, or otherwise punished therefor, by a court martial.

§ 218. Every commissioned officer, and every non-<sup>Fines.</sup> commissioned officer, musician and private shall on due conviction, be subject for the following offences to the fines thereto annexed :

1. Every non-commissioned officer, musician and private, for non-appearance, when duly warned or summoned at a company parade, a fine of two dollars; at a regimental or battalion parade or encampment, not less than three nor more than six dollars; and at a place of rendezvous, when called into actual service, a sum not exceeding twelve month's pay, nor less than one month's pay.

2. Every commissioned officer, for non-attendance at any parade or encampment, and every such officer, non-commissioned officer, musician and private neglecting or refusing to obey the orders of his superior officers on any day of parade or encampment, or to perform such military duty or exercise as may be required, or departing from his colors, post or guard, or leaving his place or ranks without permission, a fine not more than one hundred nor less than five dollars.

3. For neglecting or refusing to obey any order or warrant to him lawfully given or directed, or to make a proper return thereof, if such return be necessary, or making a false return, or neglecting or refusing, when required, to summon a delinquent before a court martial, or duly to return such summons, a fine not more than one hundred nor less than five dollars.

Refusal to act when elected.

§ 219. Every commissioned officer, for neglecting or refusing to act as such when duly elected and commissioned, may be sentenced to pay a fine not less than ten dollars; every non-commissioned officer, for neglecting or refusing to act as such when duly appointed and warranted, may be sentenced to pay a fine not less than five dollars; and every non-commissioned officer for neglect of duty or disorderly or unofficer like conduct, in addition to other penalties, may be reduced to the ranks by the commandant of the company, with the approbation of the commandant of the regiment or battalion.

Discharge of fire-arms.

§ 220. Every non-commissioned officer, musician or private, who shall unlawfully discharge any fire-arms within two miles of any parade, on the day thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar.

Retaining
commission

§ 221. Any commissioned officer who shall retain a commission received by him for any subaltern for more than thirty days, without giving notice by mail or otherwise to the person entitled to it, shall be liable to pay a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars to be imposed by the proper court martial on the complaint of any officer interested. In addition to the penalties imposed by any of the provisions of this act, every commissioned and non-commissioned officer, musician and private of a company or troop, or any other person who shall appear at any parade or encampment wearing any personal disguise or other unusual or ludicrous article of dress, or any arms, weapons or other implements not required by law, and calculated to excite ridicule or to interrupt the orderly and peaceable discharge of duty by those under arms, shall be liable to a fine of not more than twenty-five and not less than five dollars, to be imposed by the proper court martial.

Appearing in ludicrous
dress.

Excuse for delinquency

§ 222. The court martial by which any delinquent is tried, may excuse such delinquent, if it shall be made satisfactorily to appear to the court that he has a reasonable excuse for such delinquency.

§ 223. No action shall be maintained against any member of a court martial, or officer or agent acting under its authority, on account of the imposition of a fine, or the execution of a sentence on any person, if such person shall have been returned as a delinquent and duly summoned, and shall have neglected to appear and render his excuse for such delinquency, or show his exemption before such court.

Member of court martial exempt from suit.

§ 224. When a suit or proceeding shall be commenced in any court by any person against any officer of this state for any act done by such officer in his official capacity, in the discharge of any duty under this act, or against any person acting under authority or order of any such officer, or by virtue of any warrant issued by him pursuant to law, or against any collector or receiver of taxes, the defendant may require the plaintiff in such suit to file security for the payment of the costs that may be incurred by the defendant in such suit or proceeding, and the defendant, in all cases, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and in case the plaintiff shall be non-prossed or non-suited, or have a verdict or judgment against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs.

Security for costs.

OF THE COLLECTION OF FINES AND PENALTIES.

§ 225. For the purpose of collecting such fines as may be imposed by any court martial authorized by this act, the president of the court shall, within thirty days after the fines have been imposed, make a list of all the persons fined, designating the company to which they respectively belong, and the sums imposed as fines on each person, and shall draw his warrant under his hand and seal, directed to any marshal, sheriff or constable of any city or county (as the case may be,) thereby commanding him to levy such fine or fines, together with his costs, of the goods and chattels of such delinquents; and if any such delinquent shall be under age, and live with his father or mother, master or mistress, then to levy such fine or fines with the costs of the goods and chattels of such father or mother, master or mistress, as the case may be; no property now exempt by law shall be exempt from the payment of such fines, and in case the goods and chattels of any delinquent, or the goods and chattels of the father or mother, master or

List of persons fined.

Levy to be made.

Member of court martial exempt from suit.

§ 224. When a suit or proceeding shall be commenced in any court by any person against any officer of this state for any act done by such officer in his official capacity, in the discharge of any duty under this act, or against any person acting under authority or order of any such officer, or by virtue of any warrant issued by him pursuant to law, or against any collector or receiver of taxes, the defendant may require the plaintiff in such suit to file security for the payment of the costs that may be incurred by the defendant in such suit or proceeding, and the defendant, in all cases, may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and in case the plaintiff shall be non-prossed or non-suited, or have a verdict or judgment against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs.

Security for costs.

OF THE COLLECTION OF FINES AND PENALTIES.

§ 225. For the purpose of collecting such fines as may be imposed by any court martial authorized by this act, the president of the court shall, within thirty days after the fines have been imposed, make a list of all the persons fined, designating the company to which they respectively belong, and the sums imposed as fines on each person, and shall draw his warrant under his hand and seal, directed to any marshal, sheriff or constable of any city or county (as the case may be,) thereby commanding him to levy such fine or fines, together with his costs, of the goods and chattels of such delinquents; and if any such delinquent shall be under age, and live with his father or mother, master or mistress, then to levy such fine or fines with the costs of the goods and chattels of such father or mother, master or mistress, as the case may be; no property now exempt by law shall be exempt from the payment of such fines, and in case the goods and chattels of any delinquent, or the goods and chattels of the father or mother, master or

List of persons fined.

Levy to be made.

Body to be taken. mistress, of any delinquent under age, cannot be found, wherewith to satisfy the same, then to take the body of such delinquent and convey him to the jail of the city or county where he shall reside.

Confined in jail. § 226. It shall be the duty of the jailor to whom such delinquent may be delivered, to keep him closely confined, without bail or mainprize, for two days, for any fine not exceeding two dollars, and two additional days for every dollar above that sum, unless the fine, together with the costs and the jailor's fees, shall sooner be paid.

Officer to make returns. § 227. Every such martial, sheriff or constable to whom any such list and warrant shall be directed and delivered, may execute the same by levying and collecting the fines, or by taking the body of the delinquent in any city, town or county in this state, and shall make return thereof, within forty days from the receipt of such warrant, to the officers who issue the same.

New warrant may be issued. § 228. If the marshal, sheriff or constable shall not be able to collect the fines or take the bodies within the forty days aforesaid, then the officers issuing the warrant may, at any time thereafter within two years from the time of imposing the fines, issue a new warrant against any delinquent, or renew the former warrant, from time to time, as may become necessary.

Warrants renewed. § 229. Any warrant for the collection of fines, issued by virtue of this chapter, shall and may be renewed in the same manner that executions issued from justices' courts may by law be renewed.

Fines to be paid into the county treasury. § 230. The amount of any fines so collected shall be paid by the officer collecting the same into the county treasury, and shall form a portion of and be credited to the regimental fund of the regiment to which the person so fined belonged.

Additional bond required. § 231. In addition to the bond now required by law to be given by the marshal, sheriff, constable or other officer for the faithful discharge of his duties, such named officers shall execute a bond for the payment of all moneys by them collected, under the provisions of this act; and the sureties of such officers, hereby authorized to collect fines and penalties, shall be liable for any official delinquency under this act. Such bonds to be approved by the county judge of each county.

GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL COURTS MARTIAL AND COURTS OF INQUIRY.

§ 232. The president of every court martial and of every court of inquiry, both before and after he shall have been sworn, and also the judge advocate, if required, shall issue subpoenas for all witnesses whose attendance at such court may, in his opinion, be necessary in behalf of the people of this state, and also on application for all witnesses in behalf of any officer charged or accused, or persons returned as delinquent; and may direct the commandant of any company to cause such subpoena to be served on any witness or member of his company.

§ 233. The president of such court martial or the court of inquiry shall have power to administer the usual oath to witnesses, and shall have the same power to compel attending witnesses to be sworn and testify, and to preserve order, as courts of common law jurisdiction; and all sheriffs, jailors and constables are hereby required to execute any precept issued by such president or court for that purpose.

§ 234. Every witness not appearing in obedience to such subpoena when duly served, personally, with a copy of the same, and not having a sufficient or reasonable excuse, shall forfeit to the people of this state a sum not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars; and the president of such court shall, from time to time, report to the district attorney the names of all such delinquent witnesses, together with the names and places of residence of the persons serving such subpoena, the better to enable him to prosecute for such forfeiture.

§ 235. Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of any court martial or court of inquiry, by proof made before such court, that any person duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness before said court, shall have refused or neglected without just cause to attend as such witness in conformity to such subpoena, and the party in whose behalf such witness shall have been subpoenaed shall make oath that the testimony of such witness is material, such court, or the president thereof, shall have power to issue an attachment to compel the attendance of such witness.

§ 236. Every such attachment shall be executed in the same manner as a warrant, and by any officer authorized to execute warrants, and the fees of the officers serving the same shall be paid by the person against whom the same shall have been issued, unless he shall show reasonable cause, to the satisfaction of such court, for his omission to attend; such costs shall be ascertained by the court, who may thereupon issue an execution for the collection against the person liable to pay the same, and which may be collected as other executions are collected, and by any officer authorized to collect executions issued from courts of justice.

Disorderly conduct.

§ 237. Any person or persons who shall be guilty of disorderly, contemptuous or insolent behavior in, or use any insulting or contemptuous or indecorous language or expressions to or before any court martial or court of inquiry, or any member of either of such courts, in open court, intending to intercept the proceedings or to impair the respect, the authority of such courts, may be committed to the jail of the county in which said courts shall sit, by warrant under the hand and seal of the president of such court.

Warrant
how served.

§ 238. Such warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or any or either of the constables and marshals of any such county, or any officer attending the court, and shall set forth the particular circumstances of the offence adjudged to have been committed; and shall command the officer to whom it is directed to take the body of such person and commit him to the jail of the county, there to remain without bail or mainprize, in close confinement, for a time to be limited, not exceeding three days, and until the officer's fees for committing and the jailor's fees be paid.

Duty of sheriff.

§ 239. Such sheriff shall receive the body of any person who shall be brought to him by virtue of such warrant, and keep him until the expiration of the time mentioned in the warrant, and until the officer's and jailor's fees shall be paid, or until the offender shall be discharged by due course of law, unless sooner discharged by any judge of a court of record, in the same manner and under the same rules as in cases of imprisonment under process for contempt from a court at law.

Senior officer to preside in absence of president.

§ 240. In the absence of the president of any court martial, the senior officer present may preside, with all the powers of the president; and all the members of such courts shall, when on duty, be in full uniform.

§ 241. The president of any court martial or any court of inquiry may appoint, by warrant under his hand and seal, one or more marshals.

§ 242. The marshals so appointed may not only perform the usual duties of such marshals, but may also execute all process lawfully issued by such president or court, and perform all acts and duties in this act imposed on and authorized to be performed by any sheriff, marshal or constable.

§ 243. Whenever the sentence of any court martial shall be appealed from, the officer hearing the appeal shall require the court, or the president thereof, to furnish him forthwith with a statement of the case, and of the evidence touching the same; which statement and evidence shall, in case of an appeal to the commanding officer of the brigade, be forthwith, on notice of such appeal, transmitted to him.

§ 244. Such statement being furnished, the officer hearing the appeal may hear such further evidence, by affidavit or otherwise, as the nature of the case may require, and for that purpose he shall have power to administer the usual oaths to witnesses produced before him, except in cases where trials may have been had upon charges preferred.

§ 245. The last two sections shall extend to appeals made from the order of an officer approving the sentence of a court martial.

§ 246. If any officer having a warrant for the collection of any fine, shall not be able to collect the fine within the time specified therein, then the officers issuing the warrant may, at any time thereafter, within two years from the time of imposing the fines, issue a new warrant against any delinquent, or renew the former warrant, from time to time, as may become necessary.

§ 247. Any warrant for the collection of fines, issued by virtue of this act, shall and may be renewed in the same manner that executions issued from justice's courts may by law be renewed.

§ 248. It shall be the duty of the respective presidents of courts martial to prosecute, in the name of the people of the state of New York, any marshal or constable, sheriff and their sureties, who shall incur any penalty for neglect in the execution or return of any warrant, or in paying over moneys collected by him.

§ 249. Whenever any court martial shall consist of one person, he shall be deemed the president thereof within the meaning of this act.

Chiefs of staff to make returns of delinquents.

§ 250. The chiefs of the staff in each division, regiment or battalion, shall, on or before the first day of November in each year, return to the commandants of division and brigade, respectively, the names of all commissioned officers absent from any parade, encampment or drill which they shall be required by law to attend. Within ten days after the receipt of such returns, the respective commandants of division or brigade, as the case may be, shall order a court martial, to consist of three commissioned officers, without regard to rank, to pass upon such delinquency. It shall not be necessary to cause the arrest of such absentees, nor to serve any charges, unless, in the discretion of the officer ordering the court, it may be proper; but the delinquent may be fined, pursuant to the provisions of this act, provided notice of the return and of the time appointed for holding the court martial shall have been delivered to him or left at his usual place of abode at least ten days before the assembling of said court.

Delinquents to be court-martialed.

§ 251. The court may excuse any delinquent for good cause shown.

Offences against by-laws.

§ 252. Any fine for offences against the by-laws of any company of the national guards or of regimental boards, not exceeding the sum of twenty-five dollars, a certified copy of the proceedings relating to the infliction of which has been returned to any regimental court martial or court of appeals, may be enforced by such court in the manner hereinbefore provided, due notice being given to the delinquent, and further provided that a certified copy of said by-laws be filed with the commandant of the regiment.

Regulations of United States army to govern.

§ 253. Whenever any portion of the military forces of this state shall be ordered to assemble for purposes of military instruction, under the authority of the Commander-in-Chief, or whenever any part of the state forces shall be ordered to assemble, under his authority, in time of war, insurrection, invasion or public danger, the rules and articles of war, and general regulations for the government of the army of the United States, so far as they are applicable, and with such modifications as the Commander-in-Chief may prescribe, shall be

Assistant.

§ 260. The Adjutant General is hereby authorized to appoint an assistant, who shall have the rank of colonel, and be commissioned by the Commander-in-Chief, and who shall hold such office during the pleasure of the Adjutant General. In the absence of the Adjutant General from the city of Albany, or in case of his inability to perform his duties, his assistant shall have full power to perform all the duties appertaining to the office of Adjutant General. But nothing in this section shall be so construed as to give any validity to the acts of said assistant in case of the disapproval of the Adjutant General.

OF THE COMMISSARY GENERAL.

Care of arsenals and magazines.

§ 261. The Commissary General shall keep in good repair the arsenals and magazines of the state, and attend to the due preservation and safe keeping, cleaning and repairing of the ordnance, arms, accoutrements, ammunition, munitions of war and implements of every description, the property of this state; and he shall at all times have the control and disposition of the same for that purpose.

Damaged
munitions.

§ 262. He shall, under the direction of the Commander-in-Chief, dispose to the best advantage of all damaged powder, and of all ordnance, arms, ammunition, accoutrements, tools, implements and warlike stores of every kind whatsoever, that shall be deemed unsuitable for the use of the state.

Account of sales.

§ 263. He shall from time to time render a just and true account of all sales made by him, with all convenient speed, to the Governor, and shall pay the proceeds of such sale into the treasury of the state for military purposes, or expend the same in the purchase of suitable arms, ammunition and camp or other equipage, as the Commander-in-Chief may direct.

§ 264. Whenever the commanding officer of a brigade shall certify that a stand of colors or any drums, fifes or bugles, are necessary for any company, battalion or regiment in his brigade, the commissary general, with the approbation of the Commander-in-Chief, shall furnish such company, battalion or regiment with a stand of colors, and a sufficiency of drums, fifes and bugles at the expense of the state.

Drums, colors, &c., to be furnished.

§ 265. The Commissary General shall issue the proper allowance of powder and balls to artillery companies for practice; and the several commandants of artillery companies shall annually report to the Commissary General the situation and state of the pieces of ordnance, arms, implements and accoutrements, the property of the state, entrusted to their charge respectively.

Powder and ball for practice.

§ 266. The Commissary General shall issue all ammunition suited to the several arms of the service, upon the requisition of any commandant of brigade, regiment or battalion; and shall, on a like requisition, replace such articles or implements for ordnance as may be by use rendered unfit for service.

Requisition.

§ 267. The Commissary General shall report annually to the Commander-in-Chief, whose duty it shall be to transmit the same to the legislature, a true and particular statement, showing the actual situation and disposition of all the ordnance, arms, ammunition and other munitions of war, property or things, which in anywise appertain to or respect the department confided to his keeping.

Annual report.

§ 268. He shall keep a just and true account of all the expenses necessarily incurred in and about his department, which shall include all expenses for transportation, to and from the arsenals, all ordnance, arms, ammunition and camp equipage, and deliver the same to the Comptroller, who shall thereupon examine and audit the same, and shall draw his warrant on the Treasurer for such sum as he shall audit and certify to be due.

Account of expenses.

§ 269. It shall be the duty of the Judge Advocate General to prosecute any bond, the condition of which is violated by a neglect or refusal of any officer to report the condition of any arms or equipage, or to return the same to any of the arsenals of this state as required by law.

Judge ad vocate general to prosecute bond.

Assistant
commissary

§ 270. The Commissary General is authorized to appoint an assistant with the rank of colonel, and who shall be commissioned by the Commander-in-Chief and hold his office during the pleasure of the Commissary General, and shall perform the duties now required by law to be performed by the military store keeper at the New York arsenal, and shall be compensated in the same manner as such military store keeper has been compensated. In the absence of the Commissary General from the city of New York, or in case of his inability to perform his duties, his assistant shall have full power to perform all the duties appertaining to the office of the Commissary General; but nothing in this section shall be so construed as to give any validity to the acts of such assistant in case of the disapproval of the Commissary General.

OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL.

To visit and inspect.

§ 271. It shall be the duty of the Inspector General to visit, at least once in every two years, each regimental district in the state. He shall critically inspect, as often as he may deem necessary, every branch connected with the military service, including armories, arsenals and military store-houses; and he shall also attend to the organization of the militia, and report to general headquarters the improvement in discipline and tactical instruction of the uniformed forces.

Commandants to furnish information.

§ 272. Commandants of regiments and companies shall furnish to the Inspector General such information, as he may require, as to the number and kinds of arms, equipments and military property of the state issued to their respective regiments and companies; and, at the conclusion of the inspection of any armory, arsenal or military storehouse, if he find the property which ought to be kept therein, or any part of it, missing, injured, unfit for use, or deficient in any respect, he shall forthwith report the facts, in respect thereto, to the Commander-in-Chief.

To inspect tents, &c.

§ 273. It shall be his duty, after the first day in November in each year, to inspect the tents and camp equipage belonging to the state, and report any deficiency therein to the Commander-in-Chief, on or before the first day of January thereafter.

§ 274. In his annual report he shall state what general and field officers have been in command of parades and encampments, what changes of general or field officers have been made, and what degree of improvement has been attained by both officers and men, and whether the general regulations have been observed, together with such suggestions as he may see fit to make.

Annual report.

§ 275. To the Inspector General will be referred, by order of the Commander-in-Chief, such matters as require an examination at a distance from the general headquarters, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, and it shall be the duty of Inspector General, upon such reference, to report upon the qualifications of persons named to the Commander-in-Chief, for appointment to military office, and also upon the possession of the necessary requisites by the applicants for the organization of companies.

Matters referred to him.

§ 276. The division and brigade inspectors, whenever required by the Inspector General, shall report to him the condition of their respective divisions or brigades, and shall also, upon his request, report to him upon any matter properly belonging to his department, which may require examination within their respective division or brigade districts.

Reports to be made to him when required.

§ 277. The Inspector General shall visit the several encampments which shall be ordered by the Commander-in-Chief, and to ascertain whether the troops have been properly instructed in the exercises and evolutions of the field; he will cause them to be exercised in the manœuvres required to be practiced during the year, as prescribed by the regulations; and he will give his instructions, as to the exercises, to the commanding officer, who will issue all necessary orders and directions to the troops for their execution.

To visit encampments.

§ 278. The Inspector General shall, at least once in every two years, examine the book of proceedings of the board of auditors of each regiment, and the accounts filed with the secretary of such board during the two years previous, or since the last examination made by the Inspector General, and he shall carefully compare the book of proceedings with accounts; he shall also examine the warrants drawn by the board of auditors, in the possession of the county treasurer; and he shall specially report to the Commander-in-Chief whether the proceedings of the board of auditors are regularly and properly entered, and whether the warrants are in due form; and whether any military funds have been drawn from the county treasurer for improper purposes, or by persons not entitled thereto.

Assistant.

§ 279. The Inspector General is hereby authorized to appoint an assistant, who shall have the rank of colonel, and be commissioned by the Commander-in-Chief, and who shall hold such office, during the pleasure of the Inspector General, and shall receive the same compensation as the assistant adjutant general. In the absence of the Inspector General from the city of Albany, or in case of his inability to perform his duties, his assistant shall have full power to perform all duties appertaining to the office of the Inspector General. But nothing in this section shall be so construed as to give any validity to the acts of said assistant in case of the disapproval of the Inspector General.

OF THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE GENERAL.

To examine all cases that have been appealed.

§ 280. The Judge-Advocate General, as chief of his department, is charged with the supervision, care and management of all things relating to the administration of justice among the military forces of this state. He shall diligently scrutinize and examine the proceedings of all courts martial where an appeal has been taken and report thereon for the information of the Commander-in-Chief; he shall also, in like manner, report in all cases of disputed elections where an appeal has been taken. Under the orders of the Commander-in-Chief, the Judge-Advocate General shall act as judge-advocate at any court-martial where the public interests shall require his attendance.

Legal adviser of staff departments.

§ 281. The Judge-Advocate General is the legal adviser of the several staff departments, upon all legal questions which may arise therein, and to him may be referred for supervision all contracts, agreements or other instruments to be drawn or executed in the course of the business of such department.

§ 282. The officers of the Judge-Advocate General's department, when not engaged in the special duties of the same, may be detailed for such other staff duty as the commandants of their respective brigades or divisions shall direct.

OF INVASION, INSURRECTION, BREACHES OF THE PEACE, AND DRAFTS OF THE MILITIA.

OF INVASION AND INSURRECTION.

§ 283. In cases of insurrection or invasion, or imminent danger thereof, the Commander-in-Chief may, by proclamation or otherwise, order and direct the commandants of such company districts as he shall designate to accept sufficient volunteers, should the same offer, to raise said company and maintain the same at the maximum number provided by law, and if sufficient volunteers should not offer, then a sufficient number shall be drafted from the reserve militia of said districts in the manner hereinafter provided, who shall thereupon be enrolled as national guards in said company, and shall be liable to duty in case the military forces of the state should be called into service.

Volunteers to be so-accepted.

Drafting.

§ 284. The Commander-in-Chief shall have power, in case of insurrection or invasion, or imminent danger thereof, to order into the service of the state such number and description of companies or regiments of the national guard, or of other militia of the state as he shall deem proper, and under the command of such officers as he shall direct; and in such case the forces so called into service shall receive the same pay and rations as troops in the service of the United States. And all the acts, proclamations and orders of the Governor of this state, since the sixteenth day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, relating to the calling out of the militia or volunteers from this state for the service of the United States, are hereby approved, and in all respects legalized and made valid, to the same intent and with the same effect as if they had been issued and done with the previous express authority and direction of the legislature of this state, and all commissions issued or hereafter to be issued to the officers of such volunteer forces by the Governor of this state, in accordance with the act of congress in such cases made and provided, are hereby confirmed.

Acts of Governor

order out, for the defence of the state, the militia or any part thereof, under his command, and immediately report what he has done to the Commander-in-Chief, through the Adjutant-General.

Notice to be given.

§ 286. It shall also be his duty to give immediate notice of such invasion, and of the circumstances attending the same, to his immediate commanding officer, by whom such information shall be transmitted, with the utmost expedition, to the Commander-in-Chief.

Regiments to be assembled.

§ 287. The commandant of every regiment or battalion, within the limits of which an insurrection may happen, shall immediately assemble his regiment or battalion, under arms, and with the utmost expedition shall transmit information of such insurrection to the commandant of his brigade and to the Commander-in-Chief.

Notice to Judge.

§ 288. He shall also give immediate notice of such insurrection to any judge of the county in which it shall happen, and shall take such measures for its suppression as to such judge shall appear most proper and effectual.

Judge may order additional force.

§ 289. If the said judge shall deem a greater force requisite to quell the insurrection, he shall require such additional force as he may deem necessary from the commandant of the division, or of any brigade thereon whose duty it shall be to obey his requisition.

Wounded or disabled men.

§ 290. Every person who, whilst in the actual service of this state, shall be wounded or disabled in opposing or suppressing any invasion or insurrection, shall be taken care of and provided for at the expense of the state.

OF RIOTS, TUMULTS, BREACHES OF THE PEACE AND RESISTANCE TO PROCESS.

Suppression of riots, &c.

§ 291. In case of any breach of the peace, tumult, riot or resistance to process of this state, or apprehension of imminent danger of the same, it shall be lawful for the sheriff of any county, or the mayor of any city, to call for aid from any division, brigade, regiment, battalion or company; and it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of such division, brigade, regiment, battalion or company, to whom such order is given, to order out, in aid of the civil authorities, the military force or any part thereof under his command.

Verbal orders.

§ 292. In such case it shall not be necessary for commandants of companies to issue written orders or notices order out, for the defence of the state, the militia or any part thereof, under his command, and immediately report what he has done to the Commander-in-Chief, through the Adjutant-General.

Notice to be given.

§ 286. It shall also be his duty to give immediate notice of such invasion, and of the circumstances attending the same, to his immediate commanding officer, by whom such information shall be transmitted, with the utmost expedition, to the Commander-in-Chief.

Regiments to be assembled.

§ 287. The commandant of every regiment or battalion, within the limits of which an insurrection may happen, shall immediately assemble his regiment or battalion, under arms, and with the utmost expedition shall transmit information of such insurrection to the commandant of his brigade and to the Commander-in-Chief.

Notice to Judge.

§ 288. He shall also give immediate notice of such insurrection to any judge of the county in which it shall happen, and shall take such measures for its suppression as to such judge shall appear most proper and effectual.

Judge may order additional force.

§ 289. If the said judge shall deem a greater force requisite to quell the insurrection, he shall require such additional force as he may deem necessary from the commandant of the division, or of any brigade thereon whose duty it shall be to obey his requisition.

Wounded or disabled men.

§ 290. Every person who, whilst in the actual service of this state, shall be wounded or disabled in opposing or suppressing any invasion or insurrection, shall be taken care of and provided for at the expense of the state.

OF RIOTS, TUMULTS, BREACHES OF THE PEACE AND RESISTANCE TO PROCESS.

Suppression of riots, &c.

§ 291. In case of any breach of the peace, tumult, riot or resistance to process of this state, or apprehension of imminent danger of the same, it shall be lawful for the sheriff of any county, or the mayor of any city, to call for aid from any division, brigade, regiment, battalion or company; and it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of such division, brigade, regiment, battalion or company, to whom such order is given, to order out, in aid of the civil authorities, the military force or any part thereof under his command.

Verbal orders.

§ 292. In such case it shall not be necessary for commandants of companies to issue written orders or notices for calling out their men, but verbal orders and notices shall be sufficient.

§ 293. It shall be the duty of the commanding officer of any division, brigade, regiment, battalion or company, in all cases when so called into service, to provide the men of his command, so ordered out, with at least <sup>MINNA how</sup> <sup>to be armed</sup> twenty-four rounds of ball cartridge, and arms in complete order for actual service.

§ 294. Such officer shall be subject, as provided by law, to the sheriff or public officer who shall so require his aid; and for refusing or neglecting to obey the order of such sheriff or public officer so requiring service, or for interfering or in any way hindering or preventing the men of his command from performing such duty, or in any manner, by neglect or delay, preventing the due execution of law, every such commanding officer, and every commissioned officer under his command so offending, shall be liable to a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months.

§ 295. It shall be the duty of the district attorney of any county where such offence shall be committed to prosecute the same; and in addition thereto, such officer shall be liable to be tried by court martial and sentenced to be cashiered and incapacitated forever after for holding military commission in this state.

§ 296. Any non-commissioned officer, musician or private who shall neglect or refuse to obey the orders of his commanding officer in the case above provided for, shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, and imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed three months, to be prosecuted and recovered in the manner hereinbefore provided in the case of commissioned officers.

§ 297. All officers, non-commissioned officers and privates, in cases of riot, tumult, breach of the peace, resistance to process, or whenever called upon in aid of the civil authorities, shall receive the compensation provided by an act entitled "An act to enforce the laws and preserve order," passed April fifteenth, eighteen hundred and forty-five, which continues in force, and shall be published with this act; and every person who shall be wounded or disabled in such service, shall be taken care of and provided for at the expense of the county where such service shall be rendered.

OF DRAFTS OF THE MILITIA.

Lots to be drawn.

§ 298. Whenever the Commander-in-Chief shall order a draft from the reserved militia of any company district, to raise the company of the national guard therein to and maintain the same at either the minimum or maximum number provided by this act, or whenever a general draft of the militia shall be made by order of the Commander-in-Chief, or of the President of the United States, such draft shall be determined by lot, to be drawn by the clerk of the county in which such roll has been filed, in the presence of the county judge and the mayor of any city, or the supervisor of any town or ward, upon the requisition of the commanding officer of the regiment within whose bounds such person may reside.

Exemption.

§ 299. Any person so drafted may, within five days after receiving notice of the same, present to the county judge of such county his certificate of exemption, or other proof of his non-liability to military duty, which shall be duly verified, and if such county judge shall decide that such person is exempt or not liable, he shall be discharged and another person shall be drafted in his stead, in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Substitutes.

§ 300. Any person so drafted, in accordance with the above provisions, may offer a substitute at the time of the rendezvous of the drafted military force and militia, and such substitute, if he shall be an able bodied man, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, and shall consent in writing to subject himself to all the duties, fines, forfeitures and punishments to which his principal would have been subject had he personally served, shall be accepted by the commandant of the company of drafted militia to which his principal may belong.

Draft, how made.

§ 301. Whenever the President of the United States or the Commander-in-Chief shall order a draft from the militia for public service, such draft shall be made in the following manner:

1. When the draft required to be made shall be a number equal to one or more companies to each brigade, such draft shall be made by company, to be determined by lot, to be drawn by the commandant of brigade in the years service.

§ 307. Whenever any non-commissioned officers, musicians or privates of any uniformed company or troop, shall have performed service in any such company or troop for the space of seven years from the time of his enlistment therein, properly uniformed according to the provisions of law, he shall be furnished, on application by the commanding officer of such company or troop, with a certificate, duly setting forth such facts, which shall, for all purposes, be deemed prima facie evidence thereof.

Certificate of membership.

§ 308. The commanding officer of every uniform company or troop, shall, on the application of any commissioned, non-commissioned officer, musician or private of his company, deliver to him a certificate, stating that such person is a member of his company, and whether he is uniformed according to law, and how recently he may have performed duty in said company. Such certificate, when dated within six months, shall be deemed for all purposes prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated.

Arms, &c., exempt from sale or execution.

§ 309. Every officer, non-commissioned officer, musician and private of the uniform militia of this state, who shall have provided himself with a uniform, arms or accoutrements required by law or regulations, shall hold the same exempt from all suits, distresses, executions or sales for debts, or for the payment of taxes; and every mounted officer, and every member of a troop of cavalry or light artillery, who shall own a suitable horse necessary for his use as such officer or member, shall hold the same with the like exemption.

Rules and regulations.

§ 310. The rules and regulations, prepared by a board of officers under section one of title nine of the militia law, passed April seventeen, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, with such changes and modifications as are provided in this act, having received the approval of the Commander-in-Chief, are hereby ratified and confirmed, and the Commander-in-Chief is hereby authorized to make such changes and alterations in said regulations, from time to time, as he may deem expedient.

Ordnance
sergeants.

§ 311. The commandants of regiments may appoint ordnance sergeants as keepers of armories, not exceeding one to each armory, who shall be under the authority and hold office during the pleasure of the commandant; such ordnance sergeants shall be paid as now provided for keepers of armories.

§ 312. No person belonging to the military forces shall be arrested on any civil process while going to, remaining at, or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend for military duty. Exemption from civil process.

§ 313. Any person who shall purchase, retain, or have in custody or possession without right any military property belonging to this state marked as or known to him to be such, and shall, after proper demand, refuse to deliver the same to any officer entitled to the possession thereof, shall be liable to an action for the recovery of the possession of such military property, and of a penalty of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. Military property belonging to the state.

§ 314. Any person belonging to the military forces who shall, contrary to the lawful order of the proper officer, retain in his possession or control any military property of this state, shall be liable to an action to recover the possession thereof and to pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and any commanding officer may take possession thereof or of such military property mentioned in the preceding section wherever the same may be found. Penalty.

§ 315. Actions to recover the possession of military property and the amount of any fine or penalty under the two preceding sections may be brought, by any officer entitled to the possession of such property, in any court of competent jurisdiction, and such fine or penalty together with all other fines and penalties prescribed by this act, and by chapter three hundred and ninety-eight of the Session Laws of eighteen hundred and fifty-four shall be paid to the treasurer of the county where the offender may reside, for the benefit of the military fund of the regiment located therein. The possession of any military property, or the amount of a fine or penalty may be recovered in the same action. Proceedings at law shall not preclude the punishment of any military person in the military courts. Actions to recover.
