As S. M. Mallone having applied to me for certificate to have an application of leave - see to light duty.

That I have carefully examined This officer, and find him unfit for active duty in the field because of an old sun-stroke amount of organ-ism - aden-with derangement of his health, and I further express my belief this disability will be of long continuance. I therefore recommend that the transfer be granted

The Yankees came a trip to the river this morning, so I believe.
 But this evening was our turn to go on picket & at 3 o'clock we started & went down to the ford as usual, found a full line of perfectly quiet. That night the Yankees seem to be over joyed about something, we could not tell what - we found all the time in a move, we could hear their artillery & wagons moving all night About 9 o'clock orders came to my Capt who was in Command of the square to report to these Hd Qrs on at Chancellorsville immediately.
 Capt asked me what I thought

MONDAY, MAY 4, 1863.

This morning I left the infirmary on foot for summer station & got here about dark at a distance of 20 miles or more. I here I stayed all night in the depot house and in a few old boxes close by my Capt. Tuesday morning when I awoke I was informed Capt was dead I proceeded to get a rough Coffin for him, I got one & had buried. I got back & lay down I was sick & my wound was very painful. I remained here till about four o'clock, when I started up the road to look for our Company; as I was ^{not} completely lost & at one ^{time} I thought I should have to lay out all night in the rain, which I feared him after so long a time.

TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1863.

Capt William C. Williams departed this life Monday night, about 5 o'clock. He was perfectly rations at up to the time of his death, just before he died he call to me, and asked me to take charge of his effects, & turn them over to Mr. Paul. Peterberg &c. His remains was deposited just over a crop the rail road on a hill.

A soldier stepped up to Capt Jackson & said he had a good horse for you before you. Being upon a great horse, mounted by a fine horseman to colon, whose words might be

My heart trembles with joy when I think of you when we are all that happy as, but if I alone, think about P. & O. & how I tell you it is not even yet for women that have their husbands with them but worse for those that have none. They feel so lonely - I hope that it will not be long before you see us again. Soldiers will return, home we want to see you all very soon I think the time long. He says I want to you for God for him or otherwise the more we have written you letters & it is a so good - we feel that I want to see you a time of week, & some more.

SUNDAY, JULY 12, 1863.

He sent you a cake of soap, we them by P. & O. I would like to know if you get them or not, whether says that he is the same one that he was when you & him parted but if you don't feel disposed to write to him we will not - we will we southern says - we love the southern because we glory in her cause, I don't expect that I shall live to see it but if we I hope that we all may see heaven. P. & O. says to send it

SATURDAY, JULY 11, 1863.

My heart trembles, my tears are all that keeps me. I do if I alone, I think I have to do I do not I tell you it is but even the few women that have their husbands with them. But wise for those that have none. They feel
before you also wear a soldier's well earned home. We want to see you all very soon & think the time long. He says I am you for long give him or the same the same we have written you before & with love at 200 - we had the doctor get a good one a pair of socks & some thread.

Dear Mother

I received your letter on 27. I was glad to hear from you. I am in better health than I was when you left home. The family is well. your Uncle James & all are all well & in good health. I thought it strange that you did not write to me I had almost come to conclusion, that you had forgot you another. I was glad to hear from you. Don't sorry to hear of the death of Philip. I feel glad that you had the chance of attending to his burial. I feel sorry to think that Peter Mallon has acted so cowardly. If you are near and able to visit don't delay

TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1863.

Write you from — to hear of your death — but I had nothing if you killed — here of you being killed at your post — never would you your duty — and if we are never permitted to see each other upon earth — don't forget that you have a soul & are bound to die. if we are torn apart here — let us meet in heaven. show no partiality, love all our shea. Remember O. how many thy immortal soul. Oh I — do you ever pray — how you forget the prayers that you have heard and know of being put up & sent to heaven in your behalf. your Uncle James & I & all the rest of the shea ever love to you & hope that you may be soon home.

D. P. With pleasure, do I send my self to answer your kind letter which I received safe at hand this morning.
This illness as well as a tolerable good health. Except it, he has shills and fever's very bad yet, he has taken medicine twice for it, & one got. as yet.
About christmast I thought I must I had a very severe pain took me in my head & over my eyes which lasted me two weeks I could not hold my eyes open for some minutes at a time there is not a minute each week with out in the evening, how how at present. I am glad to hear from you but sorry to hear that you were sick again, I hope when these few lines reaches you - you will be well & all of your friends that is some.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1863.

you, you poor soldiers are never forgotten by your many friends though you are far away - yet our mind & prayers are with you & I I can speak for myself, I never felt upon my feeble knees without my feeble prayer carrying you condition to heaven and asking God to take care & preserve your lives - and I must think that all the prayers of ever true southerners there is not one drop of Yankee blood in our & before I am a girl or so in their own names I'll see it I long for your spirits - I hope the south side cause has lost no more and I am sure that the

SUNDAY, AUGUST 2, 1863.

For our poor women would rather die in the field of battle, if there be any good - when I think in talk about it, such a my heart & blood bills within me, I feel just like taking my gun to shooting as long as I can see a Yankee, were you here you would be almost fit yourself to see what one hope to hear from the every last of negro. They are scarce as a biting along they go to their masters & tell them that they are free & if they don't hire them, they won't work for them any longer. They will themselves & walk down to the bridge & their tools they want to go to Norfolk & stay 5 or 10 days come back & say they have free papers - the Yankees tell them not to work for us our unless they hire them or he is a convict or an if they do they are going to carry them away to old points.

Down to the bridge - C. H. A. saw they meet & have meetings down the road or more & the Yankees come there with their carbines and protect them. Do you ever saw such times in all your life. I wouldn't be by myself for nothing in life, though many men, poor women in by here for sometime they say that they are caused to be out very nearly all night, from 5 to 10 in their old shoes or a line, the negroes over here de facto have their coat also

TUESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1863.

... I see long to talk - Oh they are like as the old boy himself - I would be glad to see the sun shine in the South one more time, some of the negroes were having gone so far as to say to their master you must never strike one of my children, if you do, the next to Beck will be mine, much more I could tell but enough I tell you that there is no peace in this part of the world for any one, you can not think how times are, the Yankees have got at the large thinking that the con-dole was coming over the boys I hope it will not be one long thing will change - six miles

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1863.

I hope have both gone to New-folk there has a great number of them left, your little boys says he hopes that Mas Jim will not get killed - he told me to write you good that he wanted to see you & he says was good boy - I told him I would do so, Miss - I don't forget it said he I told him I would not, by man has left home to New-folk & Charles has changed to a doctor for some I received your letter dated 31 of Dec I could have answered before now but heard of the last battle & that I would hold on I learn when you write, whether you been removed or not before I write, I hope you will write often if it will cost you two smah, when I hear of a battle, you will know how I feel

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6, 1863.

I hope some of you have been made to suffer. My children all send their love to you. Tom says to be care yourself & hide all the Yankees you can. "M" says her Mother is wroth to the moon. Oh I must say some thing about Mollie. She has not forgot you. Cousin P. & D. & Dr Baylors wants to know who she is - & send his love to you and wants you to help him to write to her. I remain yours as ever a friend

A. B. here is a piece concerning the election. I want you to see & know how what they are doing with us, there was some frightened to (read) the vote and some never went.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1863.

I have not as much great pleasure as I have in being with knowledge of your coming on this letter that was received Sept. 6. dated June 29. you would not believe how it revives a "dearest" to receive a letter from a friend soldier we were glad to hear that you are well we were ^{that} that it is bad enough for a soldier to be far away from home and his house for a such time. we wishes our friends to stand a round your bed, in our friends when we hear of the death of a southern soldier. we hope that it will be healthy in the army just as long as the "dearest" was my sentence it seems that it will never end But I have a hope I trust in her she misses the dragon of the

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1863.

How love I for him Mr. Mallum as you ever pray - have for, often that you have a praying mother, no doubt. But she carries the name of her only son to heaven in her prayers every night.
Before she lays down head upon her downy pillow, I was to see her with her arms raised & while talking about you, the tears come that slide away down her cheeks but she said she thought you would get back, I told her I thought so, the tears seem long to her no doubt. She takes it much better than you would think, her firm & cheer and Josh was to see you about two Sundays ago they were well, all as usual you ma she complains with her

SUNDAY, AUGUST 9, 1863.

I had a complaint, tonight, you will have laughed to see Josh & me laughing & fondling with each other, little there is as pretty as ever, she goes in favour, she grows very fast.
It pleases all the children when you speak of them or call their names in your letter, Mr. particular she jumps up & come across the room & mine. Ma said she, what did mother say about me & told her she laughed & said she would tell him, some of my children have had a pain since you see left me fast, saying I have had a bad time of it. I am doing better than when I wrote to you last, my month is very well, well it is swollen a little more I don't mind it, I'm sure you will

MONDAY, AUGUST 10, 1863.

I tell you you need never want the explanation of the towns all of my work any more for I think my time had come. I myself cannot tell what I suffered, for to know some his bees, he gets as much as he can at other sects by, I said I could tell some full Henry is said to have the scarlet fever at Mrs Lane the summer I fear it will spread in the neighborhood it is quite healthy at this time I have not much interest to write I will tell that the negroes are trying themselves, last Wednesday night Charles Williams mayors and a break when they all left, they took all the wagons, horses & and his property too, Old people Denny has taken the path twice & they have tried to get him to to take his own but he says he won't do it. They marched forth people & Calvin Wilson mayors have left - are expecting some of the rest to leave every night all of the Brothers have left all Brother Wily - little just is there yet I asked him last Wednesday night did he want to see you he laugh & said he didn't I told him if he wish to see you & loved tell me I would write to you & tell you what he said, he said he did not know what he wanted to see you come home he is well doing and will come for Walter's own hand says that he'll wade waist-deep in Southern slave blood if need be doing nothing to come home in our folk. Cousin R. H. & Jane's husband (George Smith) has gone to Norfolk took his 2 horses & cart & it, and the old man & 2 colts are to get them back, now George has written R. H. to him asking money, pretending that R. H. was owing him & says if he did not pay him the money, he had voluntarily he had the power of selling up his business & so men said he better for you to send money. George owes R. H.

Remember's Friend. I feel thankful that I'm blessed with this another opportunity of writing to you - to let you know how we are getting along - this leaves no all well except bad colds. my children have not gotten well yet with the hooping cough - we hope this may find you well & hearty. we hope your Ann have got well.
We feel sorry for you. no friends yes, no kind friend to pity you, no mother to soothe your brow.
We do hope that God will hasten the time when we all shall meet again. Oh! what a great old time - though we are in the curious lines. We forget not our friends that is far away

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1863.

It is quite healthy generally in the night to-day, I have had a hard task to-day.
 My children have had the brooding cough since some last Sept. for over 2 months, we know nothing about sleep cough or day they are getting better now. God has seen fit to remove my darling boy Fletcher from earth to heaven, Oh it grieves my very heart But I mourn not so that I have no other hope. My life as his I am I have like that we will meet again and will not always be parted. I pray to Almighty that in my next him there not farewell here is ever shed I must take you how we are getting along as to know - we are disappointed by Ganks. But or two after they come. They are preparing my after every day - they buy eggs, broods, but and every thing that we have to share. They pay for what they buy, some days we are crowded with the things all day long. It is not a gain and as a source of things they act very well Oh, I get so tired of the blue books. But if they are, to be any statement here I don't know they would be here than we grow, but know not a more in the world we don't dare to forget what did at so before. The angels said we're an one except our two selves to heaven. I don't believe after about 7 that you were no believing them. I don't want to come back she wanted to go I wish she may stay for to Charlottsville Va. & there remained till 30th day of July. We were ordered back to this place & remained till 23rd of Dec before we were bothered much - then we had to run for for a while, that is for the space of one day, and returned back to this place, where we have re-much like we shall have to abandon this place & flee for some other place if refuse, if we should have to leave, this will make the third time. Great father of fathers how many more times will we have to pack up our bags & travel I earnestly hope this may be the very last, & here alas we may not have to leave now - But see no hope but to leave March 9th 1865.

Waiting for the End,
Ah my heart is weary waiting
Waiting for the End,
Waiting for this fearful war peal Clattering, and clash of war steel, To be brushed & place the "white robes" On us to descend
Waiting for the End,
Ah my heart is weary with sighing Sighing for the End
Sighing yes, ah soft & wondering If amid the battle's thundering Any will be left to greet me And sweet comfort lend, Ah my heart is sore with sighing
Sighing for the End

My dear friend I take myself to answer your very kind letter which came to hand on the last of August - You found us all well, except Dora - he is now quite well. We were glad to hear from you. But sorry to hear you was not well & sorry to learn that you were so angry with us with out a cause. Your complaint heavily against us for our writing. We haven't failed but one time & that was Dora & the cause was - We could not find out where the deposit was - it ^{was} is with us as with you, but and sometimes another - we are here in in the hands of the Yankee and we have to dodge them as we can.

There is no one place to stop at for fear of being betrayed. The negroes make themselves very busy. The Yankee have taken old man Barrett Whetstone, one our neighbor as you may say.
They have him and E Garrison now in prison. What is it for - Why - being a friend to the South & being too open. - When we are talking we do not know who are for the South or Union.
For my part I am the same of that I understand He Keelling was here with said boy - I looked him up - I found him. I told him I understood he had brought up a boy of mine, said ye, well said I can I see him - said he I guess so. So we went to the auction house, & in Chased him - and inquired if we could see him - Just turned a little - before seeing and wanted to know why I wanted to see him - I told him - and said I will see him - if I can't one way I will another said he, well you can see him - so he took me around to his jail - He called for the boy - the answer before I saw and as soon as he answered - I remarked unauthorized ^{Valentine} to make any disposition of the boy, he thought best that Valentine wanted him (Keeling) to bring the said boy Charles through the Janicklines to and within the Confederate lines, and deliver him to Lieut James M refused to do - an agreement was then made between him and Valentine to take the negro and dispose of him, and that he the said "Keeling" should be entitled to all of the purchase money - save $1800 -

did dispose of the

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1863.

Evidence of Keeling Keeling states that the boy "Charles" was taken at or near King Land's farm by the Guerrillas.
Coffey's son recognized the boy and took him to Mr. Moore's - his master & that Mr. Moore took him across to Henry Valentine for Valentine to send out here - and that the boy staid with Valentine 2 or 3 weeks. Not confined he did - I brought him up and sold him for $2765 - Keeling states, that he Balentine gave him any bill of sale for the negro - Every thing in a hurry - and that Balentine said he did not charge Mr Moore any thing for his services. all he did or had done was and what has become of them I can't see, the owner of your note selling them I cannot say. I find that every one that says they were every letter, don't do it, it is a very easy matter to find where the deposit is at, some times, at one place & then at another. They are very particular in their go because you don't know who you are talking to, you may speak or like them to be your friends & may turn out your foe, it seems that people love to have some thing to
