

Head Quarters. 3rd Army Corps.
November. 11th 1863.

General Orders.
No. 44.

The War Department announces the resignation of his position of Asst. Inspector General & Chief of Staff at the Head Quarters 3rd Army Corps by Lieut. Col. Julius Hayden.

Lieut. Col. Hayden is identified & associated with this Corps in so distinguished and conspicuous a manner that the Major General Commanding desires to express his high appreciation of his great ability and marked military qualifications on all occasions and most eminently in the recent operations which have attracted so much notice to the 3rd Corps.

The position he left vacant it will be difficult so fully to fill.

Lieut. Col. Hayden will take with him to the command of his Regiment the assurance of the high esteem and consideration in which he is held and to which his long and gallant career in the Army entitles him.

By Command of Major General French.

Signed, O. H. Hawk.
