Colchester by Inspector General &

Dear Sir. Mr Jolly showed me some time since a letter from you in answer to an application of his for a situation, In consequence of the call by the Government for more Troops I thought it likely that you might give him a place, Could you do so you would very much oblige him, and Mrs Bull and myself would esteem it as a personal favor.

Trusting that it may be in your power I remain your obedient J. S. Bull
By letter to Mr F may be directed to my care.
