Box 5 (in order from bottom to top)

Scrap Book with newspaper clippings from 1958 to 1960 with assorted photos of the different batteries of the 156th and high-ranking officers.

Written Description of some old photographs with numbers written on tracing paper over them: (includes two letters from Ed to Ed) (photos of Ed Fitzgerald are put in different area of Box 5)

Taken along Hoffman St.—Downtown side Old Armory. Occasion UNK- perhaps Non-Commissioned Officers, Old Co. "M", 10th Inf. Had built berm with Co. "M" spelled out in whitewashed rocks

1- Chas Dixon (Armory Employee); 2- Edward D. Fitzgerald (Armorer); 3- UNK; 4- UNK; 5- Frank Myers (Plumer); 6-UNK

Interesting old picture. Note streetcars. I don't see any overhead wires, but can't see horses pulling them either. The car in the foreground seems to split the parade. Note marchers coming down right side Bway. This picture probably taken from old armory. I can't identify unit with white helmets, although it may be 14th Sep Co. as a kid I remember an old coric white helmet in our attic.

CO. "M", 10th INF Basketball Team. The year is 1911.

1- Maurice Tome (center); 2- Edward Fitzgerald (manager); 3- Joe Penino (guard); 4- Sam Curlett (forward); 5- Frank Morgenwek (coach); 6- George Henschel (guard); 7- Kid Frankel (forward)

Old Armory on Bway—Built 1879. I think St. Josephs Church was the Armory prior to this? The flag was raised everyday on the tower without fail (picture not found)

During WWI prior to going over-seas CO. “M” was assigned to guard the aqueduct carrying water to NYC. This picture is of the NCO’s of CO. “M” Det 1

1- Capt. Frank L. Meagher; 2- Sgt. Chas Dixon; 3- UNK; 4- UNK; 5-UNK; 6- Cpl. Bernard Roach; 7- Sgt. Matthew Bence; 8- Bugler Frank Sass

I have no idea what this is. It looks like a food distribution (for Thanksgiving?) Taken in drill hall old armory. In back 3rd Left Edward D. Fitzgerald.

From notes on back it looks likes E.D. Fitzgerald (my father) gave to my mother 5/15/05 before they were married. I don’t know what occasion 2 officers in middle.

1- Cpl. Peter Halloran, local plumber; 10- Quarter-master Sgt. Edward Fitzgerald. CO. “M”, 10th Inf. NGNY; 7- 1st Sgt. But don’t know other names

CO. “M” 10th Inf. in summer camp—place UNK might have been Camp Smith in Peekskill.
