

June 17th

Dear Cousin Sethe

As I wrote you one letter and did not direct right I will take the opportunity to write you a few lines I am well and in hopes this will find you the same when are you a coming home do you think that you will be home on the fourth of July it has been some time since you and I have <sup>me</sup> ~~seen~~ together how is your health this warm weather it is very warm up here I saw Ellen last Sabbath and she told me that you wrote to her to have me answer your letter I'll Ellen does not think much of me because I use to ~~be~~ <sup>be</sup> a poor that you use it To do you you met Helen and I was both at the church last sabbath and meeting was out she saw another young man and he went home with her do you not think that was using me rather mean seth she says that you think more of her than you do of me write to her and ask her if it is so and see what she will say now seth I must close by bidding you Good Bye no more

Aff. Present

Write soon And Believe me your Cousin J. C. Carr

I think of me when far away I think of me when you <sup>step</sup> I think of me when you say I think of your ears in that wrote to day Henry Carr