

Philadelphia Nov 24 1861
Dear Cousin

I now tell me you in haste to inform you that we are all well at present and hoping these few few lines may find you the same mother health is not very good at present she thinks of you very often
Case is worth 6 cents A pound we had if try three hundred of cheese butter is worth 20 cents a pound we sold 2 ~~of~~ tubs of butter As we have one ~~of~~ ~~of~~ 114 bushel of wheat

we have gathered 500
bunches and crushed
again into 40 bushel ~~of~~ measure we sold 8 tubs of butter at 20 cents a ~~lb~~ pound, they were 60 weight
but today we get into my way well one day he flying out, we a white that ~~John~~ did not care either for us if ~~you~~ he'd not for us if ~~you~~ he'd you didn't you you need it not winter to
at winter will care
i got your letter 6 of Nov i was glad to know that you was all well
no more at present

our best remain yours
your affection at friends write to me as soon as you get this letter
