

Excuse this very delicate Envelope
It is the only one I have in the House

Linda Lane th 21 869.

Dear Friend Betty

I will now try and answer your Letter which I received this Evening and much pleased was I to here from you once more I began to think you had forgotten me I had not heard from you for three weeks I just think how long, but I shall not scold you for it as you did not want me to so I shall be kind of good and that you are soon coming to see me, and I presume you have so much to do and the same with my self that I can hardly find time to write now my Dear Friend I will tell you What time I'll be at Twelve, O'clock. I have just put up my work and thought I would write a few lines for you in the morning I will not have time. I am going away to be gone until Saturday. Of the Next week, Now Seth if you can make it so - that you could come the Fourth, - it would make it much pleasanter to have you here Although if you think you can't get away be sure and come the Saturday before or the the Saturday after I don't see but it would be just as pleasant to have you before or after. Just suit your self just make it as you think best and I will be satisfied, always business before pleasure - that is the old saying. but Seth I hope we can take solid comfort when you come to this place it is quite pleasant now. Now Seth I am getting so tired and sleepy I can hardly see to write now it is all so very quiet and it seems so lonesome that I will have to finish by bidding you Good Night and pleasant ^{Dreams}

P.S.

Please answer so - that I will know when you are coming and what time you will arrive here please just when you can best leave. I feel anxious to meet you at my dear Little Home.

With I repeat - tell you that I have so much sewing I hardly know which way to go first. I work early and late and I begin to feel that I am doing too much. Please excuse this and answer ^{soon} and Oblige your Friend

Ann, Bariz.

I should like to hear from you by Tuesday.
