Mr. W. F. Tiemann

Sir I have taken the responsibility of send per Adams Express the valise of Capt. W.F. Tiemann who has not been heard from as yet I found the above with his Company papers in Ricking around and hearing the offices say that his accounts where not made out I thought it best to pack all his papers and send them to you for safe keeping as he may require them to muster out at the end of his term of service

I am most respectfully Yours &c
