

Brooklyn Wednesday
Sept. 28.

J.W. Tiemann,
My Dear Sir,

We have rec^d. 2 short lines from Ned today – one dated 2 days after the first battle (21st) and the other since the second battle, or battle of "Fisher's Hill." I am happy to say he has escaped unhurt so far. In the first letter he says that he believes Frank is not wounded, but is a prisoner, and says Anthony Tiemann is well. They are still "Marching on" after the enemy. His brigade has been in the hottest of the fight in both engagements. I am truly &c

L.S. Burnham