J.W. Tiemann Esq.

Dear Sir,

I see in the News of to day your advertisement concerning your son Capt W.F. Tiemann. I shall very shortly leave for the South and will make any enquiries you wish. I shall expect remuneration as the enterprise must necessarily be attended with difficulty and expense. I am able to give you assurances of my fidelity. Consider this letter confidential. Write to me and say when and where I can see you and I will give you full particulars. Address a note to

Mrs. Cornelia Ellen Cuthbert
Station D. New York Post Office.
