

Headqrs. Post of Pa. Harbor
Barrancas, Nov. 9, 1865.

Dear Colonel, "The summer is fast, my trial is ended and my 'Corpus' is saved"
- from Tortugas - as the enclosed Copy of General Orders No. 15, from Headqrs. Fallchasee will show. You will, no doubt, be furnished with a Copy of this order, but it is a source of no little satisfaction to be able to send one myself.

Now that I am free to act, let tyrants be worse. If you have any congratulations to offer a letter addressed to one, no. 30 Broad St

New York, Care of
S. L. Brownell, Banker & Broker, will find me. If you come to that City, I should be happy to see you at that place.

Yours loyally & free

Chas Brownell
