
DIFFICULTY—On Monday night last a portion of the 170th New York Regiment, on board the steamer Connecticut, lying at the Arsenal wharf, imagined themselves aggrieved at something the captain of the boat had done, and took possession, putting the captain and crew under arrest. The Provost Marshal, hearing of the affair, proceeded to the scene yesterday morning early, with a detachment of the 10th New Jersey Regiment, arrested and detained the ringleaders, released the captain and crew, and the boat proceeded, with the 170th regiment on board, down the river to join Gen. Burnside at Fredericksburg.
